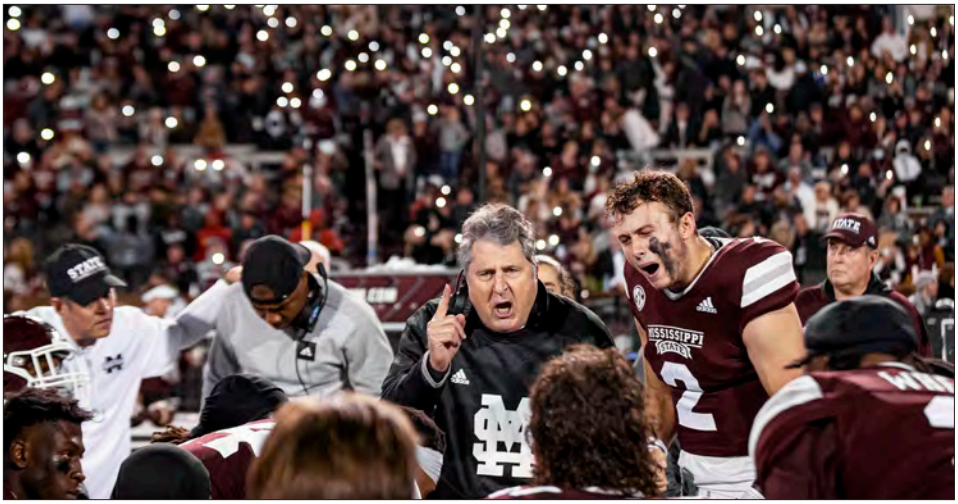
MIKE LEACH

Third Season
@Coach_Leach

34TH HEAD FOOTBALL COACH
2008 & 2018 NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

Mike Leach, a two-time national coach of the year, three-time conference coach of the year and the mastermind behind the NCAA record-setting "Air Raid" offense, was tabbed Mississippi State's 34th head football coach on January 9, 2020.

The accomplishments for Leach in his 20 years as a head coach are long and distinguished. He has compiled a 150-103 (.593) record, guided his squads to 18 bowl games, produced seven seasons of at least nine victories, captured two conference division titles, became the winningest coach in Texas Tech history and set school records for bowl appearances at both Texas Tech (10) and Washington State (6). During 10 of those 20 seasons, Leach's passing attack led the FBS – six at Texas Tech and four at Washington State.



One of the most successful coaches in the history of college football, Leach's 150 career wins are the second-most among active SEC coaches and tied for the fourth-most among active Power 5 coaches. Leach is the only active Power 5 head coach to produce an 11-win season at two different programs since 2008 and one of two active FBS head coaches to win 50-plus games at multiple Power 5 programs.

Of the 50 most productive passing yardage seasons in FBS history, 10 have come from quarterbacks coached by Leach since his hiring as head coach at Texas Tech in 2000. That includes one season by Kliff Kingsbury, one by B.J. Symons (2003), one by Sonny Cumbie, three by Graham Harrell (2006-08), one by Connor Halliday, one by Luke Falk (2015), one by Gardner Minshew II (2018) and one by Anthony Gordon (2019).

During Leach's second season in Starkville, MSU was the only school in the country that faced six teams ranked in the final College Football Playoff Top 25 and was one of four teams with three wins against teams ranked in the final poll. Leach became the first MSU head coach, at least in the modern era, to beat three teams in one season who finished ranked in a final poll.

In 2021, quarterback Will Rogers – at only 20 years old – became the first MSU quarterback to lead the SEC in passing yards per game (364.5). His 4,739 passing yards are the third most in SEC single-season history (the two quarterbacks ahead of Rogers played in two more games than he did during their respective seasons). Rogers joined 2019 Heisman Trophy winner Joe Burrow of LSU as the only QBs in college football over the last 22 seasons to throw for 4,700+ yards and 35+ touchdowns while completing at least 73 percent of their passes. After breaking nearly every freshman passing mark in MSU history in 2020, Rogers broke 25 more records, including Dak Prescott's records set as a fourth-year junior and fifth-year senior for single-season total offense, passing yards and passing touchdowns. It was the 20th consecutive season that Leach's offense eclipsed the 3,000-yard passing mark (every season of his head coaching career).

The Bulldogs were one of four teams to rank inside the top 25 nationally in both total offense and total defense during the 2021 regular season, joining Alabama, Michigan and Coastal Carolina.

Following the 2021 regular season, MSU was the third most improved scoring offense in the SEC and 10th most improved nationally at +9.5 from 2020 (21.4 ppg to 30.9 ppg).

In the spring, offensive tackle Charles Cross heard his name called at Caesers Forum in Las Vegas, when he was selected by the Seattle Seahawks with the ninth overall pick in the 2022 NFL Draft. Leach and Mason Miller became one of three head coach and offensive line coach tandems with a first-round offensive lineman selected in two of the last four NFL Drafts. Leach also became one of only two active head coaches with at least one first-round pick at three different schools.

Cross, a First Team All-American in college, became the highest-drafted MSU offensive lineman ever, surpassing Derek Sherrod who was taken 32nd overall by the Green Bay Packers in 2011. As a senior at MSU, Cross surrendered only two sacks all season on 919 pass blocking snaps, earned the top pass blocking grade in all the SEC per Pro Football Focus and finished second in the league in run blocking grade.

The COVID-19 pandemic brought many unprecedented circumstances to Leach's first season at Mississippi State, including zero spring practices, an untraditional off-season workout program, and a delayed start to a 10-game SEC only schedule. Despite those challenges, Leach's staff and players were one of the most mentally and physically conditioned teams in the SEC. The Bulldogs continued to improve throughout the season and ended the year with back-to-back victories, including the program's first win over a ranked team in a bowl game since 1941. True freshmen were responsible for 76 percent of the team's touchdowns, and more than 50 percent of the team's offensive and defensive snaps were taken by first-time starters.

Among the most inexperienced teams in the country, State led the FBS with 26 first-time starters. Leach was one of the only coaches in the country who started a true freshman quarterback (Will Rogers), a pair of true freshmen running backs (Jo'quavious Marks and Dillon Johnson) and a true freshman wide receiver (Jaden Walley) in 2020. A total of 21 MSU passing and receiving records were broken by the Bulldogs in Leach's first year. Leach had never started a true freshman at quarterback prior in his career. Two true freshmen developed into All-Americans (cornerback Emmanuel Forbes and Walley). Forbes, Walley and left tackle Charles Cross earned SEC All-Freshman Honors. In the classroom, MSU posted a program-record GPA in Spring 2021.

Leach arrived in Starkville after eight seasons at the helm of the Washington State program, where he compiled a 55-47 (.539) record and was named the 2018 American Football Coaches Association National Coach of the Year. A two-time Pac-12 Coach of the Year (2015, 2018), Leach spearheaded WSU to a school-record six bowl appearances and became the first coach in school history to lead the Cougars to five consecutive bowl games. His offense also led the nation in passing offense in four out of his last six seasons in charge.

In 2019, a young Cougars squad reached the Cheez-It Bowl while leading the nation in passing offense (437.2 pypg). A total of eight WSU student-athletes earned All-Pac-12 honors, including Gordon, who earned second-team all-conference honors at quarterback.

The 2018 campaign saw Leach produce one of the finest coaching performances in program history. WSU posted its first 11-win season in school history and earned a share of the Pac-12 North Division title. The Cougars were ranked in the top 13 of each of the College Football Playoff rankings, including four consecutive weeks at No. 8. WSU capped the season with a win over Iowa State in the Alamo Bowl and finished No. 10 in the Associated Press and Coaches polls. Senior quarterback and Mississippi native Minshew captivated the nation, leading the FBS in passing yards per game (367.6).

In the spring of 2019, Leach taught a five-week course at WSU on Insurgent Warfare and Football Strategies, along with former Washington State Senator Michael Baumgartner. That same spring, three Cougars were selected in the 2019 NFL Draft as left tackle Andre Dillard went in the first round to the Eagles, safety Jalen Thompson went in the fifth round to Cardinals and Minshew went in the sixth round to the Jaguars.

In 2017, Leach guided WSU to a 9-4 record, 6-3 in conference play, and a second straight Holiday Bowl appearance. The Cougars opened the season with six consecutive victories and posted wins over No. 5 USC and No. 18 Stanford. Once again, the Cougar offense ranked No. 2 in passing offense (366.8 pypg) while the defense ranked in the national top 25 in seven categories, including four in the top 10. Senior offensive lineman Cody O'Connell repeated as a first-team All-American while junior defensive tackle Hercules Mata'afa also earned first-team All-America honors.

A 7-2 record in Pac-12 play helped Leach's 2017 squad to an 8-5 overall mark and an appearance in the Holiday Bowl. Leach guided a WSU offense that led the Pac-12 and finished No. 3 nationally in passing offense (362.5 pypg), and led the Pac-12 and sat No. 2 nationally in completion percentage (.703). WSU won eight straight games midway through the season, the longest streak since the 1930 campaign. WSU had 10 student-athletes earn All-Pac-12 honors and O'Connell was a unanimous first-team All-American and finalist for the Outland Trophy.

The Cougars ended the 2015 season with a 9-4 record, 6-3 in the Pac-12, capped by a 20-14 Sun Bowl victory over Miami. After starting the season 2-2, the Cougars went 7-2 over the final nine games, posting last-minute victories at Oregon and No. 18 UCLA, and rallying from a fourth-quarter deficit in a 38-24 victory against Arizona State. For the second straight season, WSU led the nation in passing offense (389.5 pypg), while also finishing No. 2 in the nation in red zone offense (94.5%). The Cougars concluded the regular season by having 11 student-athletes named to All-Pac-12 teams. Senior offensive lineman Joe Dahl earned second-team All-America honors and Mata'afa garnered first-team Freshman All-America honors from USA Today.

In 2014, Leach's offense led the nation in passing offense at 477.7 yards per game, the second-highest total in FBS history, trailing only Houston's 511.3 in 1989. WSU set or tied 42 school, Pac-12 or NCAA records that season, including quarterback Connor Halliday's NCAA single-game record 734 passing yards against California. WSU placed five student-athletes on the All-Pac-12 teams.

In his second season at the helm of the Cougars, Leach guided WSU to the Gildan New Mexico Bowl, its first bowl game appearance in a decade. The Cougar offense threw for more than 400 yards five times, including a 2013 FBS-best 557 yards at Oregon. Halliday became the first WSU quarterback to surpass the 4,000-yard mark and set program single-season records for passing yards (4,587), attempts (714) and completions (449). Safety Deone Bucannon became the first WSU first-team All-American since 2005 and was taken with the No. 27 overall pick in NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals, the first Cougar taken in the first round since 2003. Washington State placed eight student-athletes on Pac-12 All-Academic teams during the season.

Leach previously spent 10 seasons as head coach at Texas Tech (2000-09) where his squads produced bowl appearances all 10 years. He compiled a school-record 84 victories, a school-record five bowl wins and eight consecutive seasons of at least eight wins.

The architect of the most prolific passing offense in the country, Leach received three national coach of the year awards in 2008 – the Woody Hayes Award, Howie Long/Fieldturf Coach of the Year and George Munger Award. Leach's offense captured six NCAA passing titles and three total offense titles during his 10 seasons in Lubbock.

Leach led Texas Tech to one of the most memorable seasons in school history in 2008 as the team set a program record with 11 regular-season wins en route to an 11-2 record. The win total tied the mark, set previously by the 1953 and 1973 Red Raider squads. Numerous accolades poured in from across the country as an unprecedented four student-athletes earned first-team All-America status, in addition to Leach's three coach of the year honors. Wide receiver Michael Crabtree was a unanimous All-American for the second-straight season, while Harrell, offensive tackle Rylan Reed and offensive guard Brandon Carter each garnered first-team honors, as well.

Harrell finished his storied career No. 2 on the NCAA career passing yardage list (15,793 yards), while breaking the career NCAA passing touchdowns mark (134). He threw for 4,555 yards in his debut as the starter in 2006 and followed that with back-to-back 5,000-yard seasons in 2007 and 2008. At the time, he became the sixth player and third Red Raider in NCAA history to throw for 5,000 yards in a season. He joins Houston's Case Keenum as the only NCAA quarterbacks with two 5,000-yard passing seasons, and his 5,705-yard effort in 2007 ranks No. 2 on the single-season charts (5,705 yards).

The running game also flourished under Leach at Texas Tech. Taurean Henderson broke the NCAA career record for receptions by a running back. The Red Raiders' 28 total rushing scores in 2008 were the most for a Tech team since the 1993 team scored 30. Despite Tech's offense revolving around the pass, Leach did a tremendous job of incorporating the running back position into the mix. Henderson finished his career with 303 receptions, which at the time ranked first in NCAA history among running backs and No. 4 overall.

A total of 18 student-athletes were drafted at Texas Tech under Leach's watch and 21 others signed free agent contracts. In the spring of 2009, four student-athletes were selected among the first four rounds of the NFL Draft, marking the most successful draft for Texas Tech in the Leach era.

The program made strides academically as well under Leach. During his 10 years, Texas Tech was recognized as one of the nation's top institutions for consistently being above a 70 percent graduation rate, according to the AFCA.

Prior to coming on board at Texas Tech, Leach, in just one season at Oklahoma, directed a Sooner offense that went from one of the worst in the Big 12 Conference to one of the best in 1999. Leach guided an offense that went from No. 11 in the Big 12 in 1998 to No. 1 in 1999. In just one year, OU's total offense numbers improved from 293.3 yards per game to 427.2 yards per game, which enabled them to climb from No. 101 in the FBS to No. 11 nationally. Under Leach, the Oklahoma offense set six Big 12 and 17 school records.

Prior to joining Bob Stoops' Oklahoma staff, Leach served as offensive coordinator for Hal Mumme at the University of Kentucky and Valdosta (Ga.) State University. Under Mumme and Leach, the Kentucky offense set six NCAA records, 41 SEC records and 116 school records in just 22 games.

Named 1996 Division II Offensive Coordinator of the Year by American Football Quarterly magazine, Leach helped Mumme lead Valdosta State to a 40-17-1 record. The 1993 Blazer offense smashed 66 school records, 22 conference records and seven national records. In 1994, Valdosta State advanced to the Division II playoffs with Leach's offense shattering 80 school records, 35 conference records and seven more national marks.

Leach and Mumme first teamed up at Iowa Wesleyan College in 1989. From 1989 to 1991 Leach served as offensive coordinator and line coach for a unit that led the NAIA in passing yardage one season and finished No. 2 the other two. Iowa Wesleyan quarterbacks passed for more than 11,000 yards in Leach's three seasons and broke 26 national records.

Leach also has made coaching stops in Pori, Finland, where he served as a head coach in the European Football League (1989), as well as one-year stints at College of the Desert (1988) and Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo (1987).

After graduating with honors from BYU in 1983, Leach earned a master's degree from the U.S. Sports Academy and his Juris Doctor from Pepperdine University, where he graduated in the top one-third of his class.

The oldest of six siblings, Leach and his wife, Sharon, are the parents of four children; Janeen, Kim, Cody and Kiersten, along with three grandchildren. Born in Susanville, California, Leach was raised in Cody, Wyoming.

Leach led Washington State to a school-record six bowl appearances and became the first coach in school history to lead the Cougars to five consecutive bowl games. At Texas Tech, he compiled a school-record 84 victories, a school-record five bowl wins and eight consecutive seasons of at least eight victories. In just one year as offensive coordinator at Oklahoma, OU's offense set six Big 12 Conference and 17 school records. In the same role at Kentucky, the Wildcat's offense set six NCAA records, 41 Southeastern Conference records and 116 school records in 22 games.

WHAT THEY SAID ON LEACH'S HIRING...

"Mike Leach is a proven winner who has established a culture of excellence for nearly two decades as a head coach. An offensive genius and two-time national coach of the year, he has a track record of building programs to national prominence with accountability and a blue-collar approach. We are thrilled to welcome him and his family to the Mississippi State family and look forward to watching our football program grow under his leadership."
- MSU Director of Athletics John Cohen

"I want to commend Athletics Director John Cohen and his staff for conducting a very thorough and true national search. In Coach Mike Leach, that search produced a charismatic leader for our program who has proven he can both win football games at a high level and motivate teams to play up to their potential. I'm excited about the future of our football program."
- MSU President Dr. Mark Keenum

"Mike Leach is a great hire for Mississippi State. He is one of the most unique and creative minds in the game of football and should bring an exciting style of play to the fans in Starkville. The numbers his offense put up the last time he coached in the SEC were record-setting and I would expect strong results this time around as well."
- Bob Stoops, former Oklahoma head coach

"Congrats to Mississippi State on the hiring of my close friend Coach Mike Leach. Mike will give Mississippi State fans an exciting, disciplined and focused team with his unique perspective of running a successful program. This will be a great era of Mississippi State football."
- Urban Meyer, three-time national champion head coach

"Without a doubt Mike Leach is one of the greatest offensive minds in college football history. What truly sets him apart is his ability to develop quarterbacks and consistently produce high-powered offenses everywhere he's been. I cannot wait to see him continue that at Mississippi State and I know that program is in for one heck of a ride."
- Kliff Kingsbury, Arizona Cardinals head coach

"We know the offense will work. We know Leach will find quarterbacks and receivers who can break records. If he staffs the defense appropriately, the Bulldogs may be able to continue to outpunch their weight and live in the manner to which they had become accustomed."
- Andy Staples, The Athletic

AIR RAID INNOVATOR

Known as the "Quarterback Whisperer", Mike Leach's innovative offensive attack has resulted in his teams leading the nation in passing offense 10 times. His Washington State teams led the nation in four of the last six years, and never finished lower than third. Leach has seen 18 players drafted on the offensive side of the ball as a head coach.

COACHING NOTES AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

• A rising star in college football's coaching ranks who was hired as defensive coordinator at Mississippi State in January 2020 and enters his third season on Mike Leach's staff. Worked with linebackers during his first two seasons in Starkville before transitioning to leading the safeties unit in 2022. Runs a signature 3-3-5 scheme and has as a reputation for aggressive play, heavy blitzing and a commitment to physicality.

• Arnett's attacking style defense has made an instant impact in Starkville as the Bulldogs have ranked in the top five of the SEC in each of his first two seasons in total defense, rushing defense, yards per rush, first downs allowed per game, and takeaways. In fact, State led the SEC in fewest first downs allowed in 2021 (219), and the Bulldogs were one of the best in the league at getting off the field as they allowed the second fewest total plays on the year (807).

• Prior to MSU, spent the previous nine seasons at San Diego State under the mentorship of one of the game's great defensive minds in former Aztecs head coach Rocky Long. Began his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant in 2011 before being elevated to linebackers coach in 2014 and promoted to defensive coordinator in 2018.

• Since 2018, ranks inside the top 15 among FBS defensive coordinators with a minimum of four years of experience in the following categories: rushing yards allowed per season (4th – 1,298.3), rushing touchdowns allowed per season (11th – 12.8), total touchdowns allowed per season (13th – 30.5), rushing yards allowed per game (3rd – 104.7), rushing touchdowns allowed per game (10th – 1.0), yards per play allowed per game (12th – 5.2), points per play allowed per game (11th – 0.3), scoring percentage allowed (12th – 30.5), touchdown percentage allowed (11th – 21.1), points per possession allowed (12th – 1.6), yards per completion allowed (15th – 11.6), yards per rush allowed (3rd – 3.2), plays per point allowed (10th – 3.2), 30-point games allowed (14th – 14), 40-point games allowed (2nd – 2), 50-point games allowed (1st – 0), percentage of 20+ yard plays allowed (9th – 5.6), percentage of 12+ yard runs (6th – 7.0) and total touchdowns allowed per season (11th – 29.5).

• Allowed fewer than 150 rushing yards in 15 games during his MSU tenure, which ranks third in the SEC behind Georgia (24) and Alabama (26).

• Has produced two NFL Draft picks in two years at MSU: DL Marquiss Spencer (seventh round) in 2021 and CB Martin Emerson (third round) in 2022.

• A two-time nominee for the Broyles Award (2020 and 2021) which is given to the nation's top assistant coach, and a member of the prestigious AFCA 35 Under 35 Coaches Leadership Institute (2020).

• Against SEC teams, Arnett's defense ranked third in total defense (352.3) in 2021 and fourth in total defense (380.3) in 2020 after ranking 11th (419.3) in 2019 before his arrival at MSU.

• In 2021, held the following opponents to season lows: No. 12 Kentucky (216 yards of total offense), NC State (337 yards of total offense and 34 yards rushing), No. 15 Texas A&M (135 yards passing), Vanderbilt (9 yards rushing).

• In his first year in Starkville taking over a defense that featured an astounding 11 first-time starters, ranked fifth in total defense (389.7) after ranking 11th the season prior to his arrival. Also ranked fifth in the SEC in yards per play allowed (5.5), ranked third in the SEC in rushing touchdowns allowed (11), ranked fourth in the SEC in takeaways (18) and led the SEC in fourth-down conversion rate (42.9). Finished sixth in the SEC in scoring defense (28.1), six spots higher than in 2019. Freshman All-American cornerback Emmanuel Forbes led the SEC in interceptions (5) and led the nation in defensive touchdowns (3), while cornerback Martin Emerson tied for the SEC lead with 11 pass breakups.

• Especially stout on drives after it forced a turnover in 2020. When the ball was taken away by an interception or fumble, Arnett's defense allowed just 305 yards over 18 opposing possessions while forcing seven punts with five three-and-outs and three turnovers. In the 23 total drives, MSU's opponents ran 97 plays for 373 total yards (3.85 yards per play) with an average time of possession of 1:49. MSU forced punts on nine of 23 drives following a turnover, including seven three-and-outs, and forced five turnovers while allowing six touchdowns.

• Led a 2019 San Diego State defense that ranked in the top 10 nationally in seven categories. The Aztecs finished second in rushing defense (75.4 yards per game), third in scoring defense (12.7 points per game), fourth in interceptions (18), fourth in first downs allowed (198), sixth in total defense (287.8), sixth in passing efficiency defense (110.25) and eighth in takeaways (27).

• During his first season at the helm of San Diego State's defense in 2018, the Aztecs ranked seventh nationally against the run (103.8 yards per game), 13th in first downs allowed (216) and 21st in total defense (334.6 yards per game).

• In nine seasons at San Diego State, the Aztecs posted a combined 81-38 (.681) record, won three Mountain West Conference championships, and played in a bowl game every year – winning four of them. He coached seven all-conference linebackers, including Kyahva Tezino, who was an All-Mountain West first team selection in 2018 and 2019. Arnett also guided the career of All-American and three-time All-Mountain West choice Calvin Munson, who finished sixth in SDSU history with 301 tackles.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS AS A PLAYER

• Prior to coaching, played linebacker for four seasons (2005-08) at the University of New Mexico. Logged 200 career tackles and tied for the FBS lead with six forced fumbles as a senior captain in 2008. Arnett helped the Lobos to 25 wins as a student-athlete and consecutive bowl appearances in 2006 and 2007.

• Four-time academic all-conference selection and earned 2008 CoSIDA Academic All-America first team honors.

• A native of Albuquerque, New Mexico, attended La Cueva High School, where he was a two-sport athlete in football and baseball. Originally signed to play baseball at New Mexico before earning a football scholarship the summer prior to the start of his true freshman season.

• Graduated from New Mexico in 2009 with a bachelor's degree in history and minor in political science. He and his wife, Emily, have one son, Case, and a daughter, Collins.

Matt Brock enters his third season at Mississippi State in 2022. He was hired as MSU's special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach on February 4, 2020.

Prior to MSU, he spent two seasons at Washington State as the special teams coordinator while also coaching the outside linebackers.

A selection to the AFCA's prestigious 35 Under 35 Coaches Leadership Institute for 2020, Brock's special teams unit was solid for the second straight season in 2019. Kicker Blake Mazza ranked fifth nationally and led the Pac-12 in field-goal percentage (95.2) and earned All-Pac-12 first team honors. Mazza, a Lou Groza Award finalist and midseason All-America second team selection by The Athletic, was 20-of-21 on field-goal attempts. He made his first 18 field goals to start the season, the longest consecutive field-goal streak in WSU history. Mazza, whose longest field goal of the year was a career-high 51 yards, led the Pac-12 in scoring with 115 points.

The Cougars ranked second in the Pac-12 in punt return average (16.2) and opponent kick return average (19.5). Additionally, freshman Travion Brown was named to the All-Pac-12 second team as an all-purpose/special teams player.

In his first season with the Cougars, Brock saw a trio of players earn All-Pac-12 honorable mention honors on special teams in punter Oscar Draguicevich III, kick returner Travell Harris and Kainoa Wilson.
The Cougars finished the 2018 season 11th in the country and first in the Pac-12 in net punting (40.9), fifth in the country in kick return (27.1) and second in the Pac-12 in kickoff coverage.

Under Brock, Harris earned Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week after a 100-yard kickoff return for touchdown against Eastern Washington. The punt return team returned a blocked punt for a touchdown at Oregon State. The kickoff coverage team scored a touchdown after recovering a fumble against Arizona. Kicker Blake Mazza hit a 42-yard game-winning field goal in the final minute at Stanford.

Brock also mentored a pair of first-year starters at RUSH linebacker who combined for 15.0 tackles for loss. That total included 8.5 sacks, helping the Cougars lead the Pac-12 in sacks and finish third in rushing defense.

Brock arrived in Pullman after two seasons (2016-17) at Bowling Green, where he served as special teams coordinator and worked with linebackers.

In 2017, he was a nominee for the Broyles Award, given to the top assistant coach in the country. His special teams units ranked among the nation's top 20 in net punting average (4th), kickoff return defense (3rd) and punt return defense (20th).

In his first season at Bowling Green, Brock's special teams unit led the nation in kickoff defense, ranked third in net punting average and finished 28th in punt return defense. Punter Joseph Davidson was a two-time Ray Guy Award semifinalist. Davidson was a first-team Academic All-American and fourth-team All-American by Phil Steele in 2016.

Prior to Bowling Green, Brock spent three seasons (2013-15) at Texas Tech as a defensive quality control assistant. He also coached the defensive line in the Texas Bowl against LSU in 2015.

Brock was the defensive quality control coach in his first season at Tech in 2013, before being promoted to inside linebackers coach early in the 2014 season. He served in that capacity through the remainder of that season.

In 2014, Brock spent the majority of the season as the inside linebackers coach, developing All-Big 12 linebacker Sam Eguavoen. He assisted in developing the game plan each week and was directly involved in analysis and evaluation on game day.

During Brock's first season with the Red Raiders in 2013, he coached Will Smith who garnered All-Big 12 honors along with being named Holiday Bowl Defensive Player of the Game. Smith was drafted in the seventh round by the Dallas Cowboys.
Brock arrived in Lubbock following two seasons at his alma mater Baker University (2011-12), where he served as a graduate assistant coach, oversaw the team's linebackers and assisted defensive coordinator Jason Thoren in the coaches' booth on game day.

Brock was a linebacker during his collegiate playing career at Baker. He tallied 277 career tackles and seven interceptions while leading the league in total tackles and tackles per game in 2010.

A 2009 and 2010 all-conference selection, Brock was a two-time Academic All-American and earned several team most valuable player awards.

Brock graduated from Baker in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He and his wife, Alyssa have one daughter, Emma.

2019 Cheez-It Bowl (Washington State)
2018 Alamo Bowl (Washington State)
2017 Holiday Bowl (Washington State)
2016: Holiday Bowl (Washington State)

Drew Hollingshead has served as an offensive assistant under Mike Leach for the last six seasons working primarily with quarterbacks. He boasts more than a decade's worth of experience in the record-setting Air Raid offense.

Hollingshead has been instrumental in helping develop Air Raid quarterbacks Luke Faulk (WSU), Gardner Minshew II (WSU), Anthony Gordon (WSU) and most recently Will Rogers (MSU) into some of the most prolific passers in college football. Faulk, Minshew II, Gordon and Rogers have each posted 4,000-plus yard passing seasons while ranking top five nationally in passing yards per game. In fact, Minshew II led the nation in passing in 2018 (367.6 ypg) and Gordon continued the trend in 2019 (429.2 ypg).

Hollingshead has helped mentor Rogers the last two seasons in Starkville. In 2021, Rogers – at only 20 years old – became the first MSU quarterback to lead the SEC in passing yards per game (364.5). His 4,739 passing yards are the third most in SEC single-season history (the two quarterbacks ahead of Rogers played in two more games than he did during their respective seasons). Rogers and 2019 Heisman Trophy winner Joe Burrow of LSU are the only QBs in college football over the last 22 seasons to throw for 4,700+ yards and 35+ touchdowns while completing at least 73 percent of their passes. After breaking nearly every freshman passing mark in MSU history in 2020, Rogers broke 25 more records during his sophomore season in 2021, including Dak Prescott's records for single-season total offense, passing yards and passing touchdowns. Prescott set those records as a fourth-year junior and fifth-year senior.

A native of Rockwall, Texas, Hollingshead joined Leach at Washington State in February of 2016. He began his stint on the Cougars coaching staff as an offensive graduate assistant before becoming a quality control coach in 2018, a season where WSU posted its first 11-win season in school history and earned a share of the Pac-12 North Division title. The Cougars were ranked in the top 13 of each of the College Football Playoff rankings, including four consecutive weeks at No. 8.

Before his time at WSU, Hollingshead spent three seasons at Texas A&M-Commerce, where he served first as a quality control coach/quarterbacks coach in 2013 before moving on to a more on-the-field coaching role working with the Lion quarterbacks for the start of the 2014 season. Prior to Commerce, Hollingshead coached at Hyde Park Baptist High School in Austin, Texas, under coach Dean Campbell. He served an internship in spring 2013 with the Toronto Argonauts football staff in the Canadian Football League.

Hollingshead attended the University of Houston, where he played quarterback and graduated in three years with a degree in sports administration in August of 2012.

Tony Hughes, a veteran coach and heralded recruiter with three decades of experience in his home state of Mississippi, returned to Starkville on December 12, 2018, for his second stint. He coached the Bulldogs' tight ends unit during the 2019 season and held the role of associate head coach. The 2022 season will be his 11th overall with the Bulldogs and his third straight as associate head coach and nickelbacks coach.

Hughes made a return to the defensive side of the ball in 2020. He played a pivotal role in helping State land at Top 25 signing class in 2020, which featured 22 signees for the 2020 class, including 11 top-30 prospects from Mississippi.

Hughes spent seven seasons from 2009-15 with the Bulldogs coaching safeties and as recruiting coordinator. He also served as assistant head coach for three of those seasons beginning in the spring of 2013.

A teacher and mentor to his student-athletes, Hughes has excelled at identifying players in the state of Mississippi that leave MSU as five-star NFL prospects.

During his first stint at MSU, Hughes recruited and helped tutor some of the program's most storied players turned NFL stars. Such players include 2012 first-round draft pick defensive tackle Fletcher Cox – an eventual Super Bowl Champion and three-time Pro Bowl selection – as well as second-round draft selections defensive end Chris Jones and 2017 Pro Bowl defensive back Darius Slay. He also guided 2012 Jim Thorpe Award winner Johnthan Banks and first-team All-American Benardrick McKinney. McKinney was once a two-star high school quarterback in Tunica, Mississippi, before being drafted by the Houston Texans in 2015. Hughes also recruited Gabe Jackson, one of the elite offensive linemen in MSU history from 2010-13 who now starts at right guard for the Las Vegas Raiders.

Prior to Hughes' return to Starkville, the longtime Mississippian spent two-plus seasons in Jackson, Mississippi, as head coach at Jackson State University.

Hughes has a reputation as being one of the top recruiters in college football on an annual basis. He served a pivotal role in helping State land 22 signees for the 2020 class during the early signing period last December. Among the 22 early signees, 11 were top-30 prospects from Mississippi.

In 2015, 247Sports tabbed him as one of America's top 10 recruiters after the Bulldogs hauled in one of the nation's top-16 classes.

According to Rivals, the 22 National Letters of Intent MSU received on National Signing Day in 2015 made up the Bulldogs' best class since 2003. MSU hauled in five of Mississippi's top six players. Fifteen of the Bulldogs' signees hailed from the state of Mississippi.

With Hughes on the coaching staff, the Bulldogs had unprecedented success in 2014 when they claimed 10 regular-season wins for the first time in school history and reached their first Orange Bowl since 1941. It was a season of firsts for the program, which spent five consecutive weeks atop the polls and closed the year with its highest Associated Press poll finish since 1940 at No. 11.

State's defense was dominant during the historic 2014 season, producing the top ranked red zone defense and ninth-ranked scoring defense in the country. Following that season, two of Hughes' safeties signed NFL free agent contracts, including his son, Jay, who was a team captain.

In 2013, Hughes' safeties unit helped the Bulldogs rank among the SEC's top five in a number of categories, including fourth in total defense (349.3 yards per game) and fifth in passing defense (205.2 yards per game). MSU also held its final three opponents to just 11.3 points per game.

Hughes first joined the Bulldogs in 2009 after spending one season at Southern Miss (2008), where he coached the secondary. Before that, he coached for three seasons at Ole Miss (2005-07). Named one of the top 25 college football recruiters in the nation by Rivals in the spring of 2006, Hughes' first two years were spent tutoring the defensive backs with his final season in Oxford spent working with the tight ends.

Prior to a two-season tenure at Louisiana Tech (2003-04), Hughes spent the previous nine years on the coaching staff at Hinds Community College (1994-2002) in Raymond, Mississippi, where he served as the defensive coordinator for one year and the secondary coach during his first nine seasons. He coached eight players who later went on to the NFL, including former MSU standout Fred Smoot.

Before working at Hinds, Hughes' first college stop as a full-time collegiate coach was a two-year stay at West Alabama (1992-93), where he was the secondary coach. Hughes coached for seven years in the Mississippi high school ranks, serving as the offensive coordinator and running backs coach at Hattiesburg High School (1988-1991). Hughes also spent two seasons as the defensive secondary coach and boys track coach at South Natchez High School (1986-87). His first high school coaching job came at Philadelphia High School (1985).

After serving in the United States Marine Corps from 1981-84 and receiving an honorable discharge, he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Southern Miss (1984), working with the defensive backs.

Hughes, who played football and ran track at Forest High School (1974-76) and played defensive back at St. Paul's College (1976-77), was a defensive back for Southern Miss in 1977 and 1978. He earned his bachelor of arts degree in sociology from there in 1980. He is an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, serving as a member of the Mississippi FCA State Board of Directors in 1999, president of the Mississippi FCA Coaches Council in 1998 and vice-president of the Mississippi FCA Coaches Council in 1997.

Hughes is married to the former Marion McCaleb of Meridian, Mississippi, and the couple has two sons, Jamison and Jay.

Darcel McBath enters his third season as Mississippi State's cornerbacks coach in 2022. He came to MSU on February 4, 2020 as cornerbacks coach.

Before arriving in Starkville, he spent three seasons at Washington State (2017-19), including part of the 2019 season as interim co-defensive coordinator and cornerbacks coach. He was elevated to cornerbacks coach in 2018 after serving in a defensive quality control role in 2017.

McBath assumed co-interim defensive coordinator duties on Sept. 28, following the Utah game during the 2019 season. The Cougars finished the year fifth in the Pac-12 in takeaways (19) and tied for second in fumbles gained (9). His cornerbacks unit was led by George Hicks III, who broke up a team-high five passes and Marcus Strong, who recorded a pair of interceptions.

During his first season coaching cornerbacks in 2018, his unit combined for five takeaways highlighted by four interceptions. His group broke up 18 passes on the year and added 3.0 sacks. Senior Darrien Molton tied for eighth in the Pac-12 with nine pass breakups. McBath's unit finished fourth in the Pac-12 in passing defense.

As a defensive quality control coach in 2017, McBath assisted with game prep, film breakdown and statistical tendencies for the Cougars.

Prior to his time in Pullman, McBath spent the 2016 season as a defensive quality control analyst at North Texas, working with defensive backs.

The Gainesville, Texas native, was a four-year letterman at defensive back under Mike Leach at Texas Tech from 2004-08. McBath earned All-Big 12 first team honors in 2008 after leading the nation with seven interceptions. He graduated in 2008 with a degree in general studies and spent five seasons in the NFL after being selected in the second round of the 2009 NFL Draft.

McBath played five seasons in the NFL before beginning his coaching career. A second-round selection by the Denver Broncos in the 2009 NFL Draft, McBath spent two seasons in Denver, one in Jacksonville and two in San Francisco. He played in 52 total games, recording 45 tackles with two interceptions. He played in Super Bowl XLVII as a member of the 49ers and made one tackle.

McBath and his wife, Malorie, were married in 2013 and have two children, Ansleigh and Duke.

Eric Mele enters his third season at Mississippi State in 2022. He transitioned to the role of special teams coordinator prior to the 2022 season. Mele was initially named MSU's running backs coach on February 4, 2020.

Mele spent the previous nine seasons at Washington State (2012-19), including his final two seasons as running backs coach.

Mele's 2019 running backs unit featured All-Pac-12 honorable mention Max Borghi, who led the Cougars and ranked third in the conference in total yards from scrimmage with 1,414. His 16 touchdowns from scrimmage were the second-most in the Pac-12, while his 86 receptions led the nation among running backs.

In 2018, Mele's running backs were highlighted by a couple dynamic playmakers in All-Pac-12 honorable mention James Williams and Pac-12 Freshman of the Year honorable mention Borghi. Washington State running backs combined to lead all Pac-12 running back groups with 145 receptions and tallied the second-most total touchdowns (28). Williams led the FBS among running backs with 83 catches, and Borghi scored 12 total touchdowns, tying the Washington State single-season record for total touchdowns by a freshman.

Prior to that he served as the Cougars' special teams coordinator from 2015-17. He was promoted to the full-time special teams coach in February 2015, after serving in the same role on an interim basis the final two months of the 2014 campaign. Mele spent his first two and a half seasons at Washington State in an offensive quality control position, working with film breakdown and assisting with the development of quarterbacks.

Mele mentored All-Pac-12 Second Team kicker Erik Powell in 2017. Powell finished his Washington State career third on the school's all-time points kicking list (317). He earned Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week three times during the season and was also a Lou Groza Award semifinalist. Powell concluded his career with a school record 164 career PATs and third in Cougar history for field goals made (51) and field goal percentage (72.9). Under Mele, Washington State's special teams produced the sixth-ranked punt coverage team in the FBS and didn't allow a special teams touchdown for the first time since 2005.

In 2016, Washington State produced impressive special teams numbers and reached multiple milestones under Mele. The Cougars recorded their first kick return for a TD since 2003 and first punt return for a score since 2005 (first time to record both in the same season since 1968). The Cougars scored twice on special teams in a victory against Idaho, returning a blocked field goal for a touchdown and later scoring after recovering a fumble during a kickoff. In Pac-12 play, Mele's group was the top-ranked punt return unit (18.8 yards-per-return) and second in kick return (23.0 yards-per-return). The punt return unit finished ninth in the country after averaging 13.5 yards-per-return.

Prior to Washington State, Mele spent five seasons as the special teams coordinator/running backs coach at Wingate University (2007-11). During his time at Wingate, Mele helped guide the Bulldogs to a 36-19 record highlighted by a second-appearance in the 2010 NCAA Division II playoffs.

Prior to Wingate, Mele spent the 2006 season as the wide receivers coach/passing game coordinator at Saint Peter's College (N.J.) where the school finished eighth in the FCS in completions (242).

He worked the 2005 season as the co-defensive coordinator/special teams coordinator and defensive backs coach at Marist High School (N.J.), helping it to the program's first playoff berth in 12 seasons. Mele also worked two seasons as the special teams coordinator/defensive backs coach at William Paterson University (N.J.).

Mele was a three-year starter at strong safety and outside linebacker at William Paterson, where he earned his bachelor's degree in sociology and criminal justice in 2002. He earned his master's degree in sports management from the American Military University in 2007.

He and his wife, Melissa, have four daughters, Samantha, Jordan, Taylor and Madison.

Mason Miller enters his third season with the Bulldogs in 2022. He joined the Bulldogs as offensive line coach on February 4, 2020.

Miller came to Starkville after two seasons at Washington State (2018-19) as the offensive line coach. No stranger to the Air Raid system, Miller has spent the majority of his career coaching in that style of offense, working with both Leach and Hal Mumme, two of the Air Raid's architects.

Miller, who has coached at all three levels of the NCAA, has been a key part in establishing lethal offenses wherever he goes. With stops at Southeastern Louisiana, New Mexico State, McMurry and Tarleton State, Miller's offenses have set a bevy of school records and ranked in the top five in the nation in multiple offensive categories.

Miller's offensive line unit allowed the fewest sacks in the Pac-12 during each of his two seasons at Washington State (20 in 2019, 13 in 2018). Under Miller's guidance in 2019, sophomore offensive tackle Abe Lucas earned All-Pac-12 second team honors and finished as the third-highest graded offensive lineman in the conference at 84.5 according to Pro Football Focus. Offensive guard Josh Watson also earned postseason honors as an All-Pac-12 honorable mention.

Miller's unit protected college football's top passing attack in consecutive seasons as the Cougars led the nation in passing offense, averaging 437.2 yards per game. Quarterback Anthony Gordon averaged an FBS-best 429.2 passing yards per game in 2019 after Gardner Minshew II was tops nationally in 2018 with an average of 367.6 passing yards per game. The Cougars allowed only 20 sacks in 2019 and just 13 in 2018.

In his first season with Cougars, Miller's group developed into one of the nation's best offensive lines and was named one of 10 semifinalists for the Joe Moore Award, given to the nation's best offensive line. In addition, three of his players earned All-Pac-12 honors. Left tackle Andre Dillard led the way earning All-Pac-12 first-team honors, and was later named to the All-America second team by SI.com. He was rated the top pass-blocking tackle in the country by PFF and was a first-round pick by the Philadelphia Eagles in the 2019 NFL Draft. Dillard became the highest drafted Cougar offensive lineman in program history. Right tackle Lucas was named to the All-Pac-12 second team and later earned Freshman All-America honors by USA Today and The Athletic, while center Frederick Mauigoa earned All-Pac-12 honorable mention.

Prior to his time with the Cougars, Miller spent one year (2017) as Nevada's offensive line coach under first-year coach Jay Norvell.

During Miller's time at Tarleton State (2014-16), he engineered the program's high powered offense into one of the nation's best. In 2014, Tarleton State ranked third nationally in total offense, averaging 534 yards per game and put up 43 points per game. The same continued in 2015 with one of the highest powered offenses in the country, averaging nearly 40 points per game.

Prior to Tarleton State, Miller served as the head coach at McMurry for the 2013 season. While leading the War Hawks, the offense set school records in multiple categories including total yards (5,775), yards per game (523.1) and most points scored (424). Before his promotion to head coach, Miller was an assistant coach for the War Hawks for four seasons (2009-12). He had been an integral part of three consecutive winning seasons at McMurry, something that had happened just six other times in the university's 87-year football history. In his four seasons as an assistant coach, the War Hawks averaged 416.0 yards per game of total offense with more than 346.0 passing yards per game. Miller began as the War Hawks' assistant head coach and offensive line coach and was promoted to offensive coordinator after the departure of Matt Mumme following the 2010 season. Miller also served as McMurry's recruiting coordinator.

The 2012 campaign, which was McMurry's first at the NCAA Division II level, saw the War Hawk offense average more than 433.0 yards per game in total offense and 367.0 yards per game via the passing game. Quarterback Jake Mullin became just the 59th player in NCAA history – at any level – to pass for both 10,000 yards and 100 touchdowns in a career, leading the team to its first bowl appearance and first bowl win in 63 years.

In 2011, Miller's first as offensive coordinator, he orchestrated an offense that ranked 18th in the nation and second in the American Southwest Conference in scoring offense at 37.7 points per game. Eight of his 2011 players were named to the All-ASC team on offense. McMurry set the NCAA Division III single game total offense record with 863 yards against Texas Lutheran. In 2010, Miller's offensive line paved the way for the second-best passing offense in both the ASC and NCAA Division III.

Miller played running back at Valdosta State for two seasons (1994-95) under Leach, who was offensive coordinator at the time. Miller was a member of the NCAA Division II team that made the national playoffs for the first time in school history. He stayed on at Valdosta State as a student assistant after suffering a career-ending knee injury. Miller was a part of the staff that led VSU to a 1996 Gulf South Conference Championship.

Following a two-year stint coaching Valwood High School (1998-99) in Valdosta, Georgia, Miller returned to the collegiate ranks at Washington and Lee University, serving as the wide receivers coach. He then reunited with his old college football coach and helped Hal Mumme start the Southeastern Louisiana University football program from scratch. Miller coached the running backs in 2003 and moved to coach the offensive line in 2004 and helped SLU lead the nation in total offense.

Mumme took Miller with him to New Mexico State (2005-08) in Las Cruces, New Mexico. Miller worked with the Aggies' offensive line all four years and an offense that ranked third in the nation in total offense. He coached four all-conference linemen at NMSU including Nick Cole, who played in the NFL for the Philadelphia Eagles. Miller was promoted to assistant head coach prior to the 2008 season with the Aggies.

Miller graduated from Valdosta State with a bachelor's degree in history in 1999.

He and his wife, Megan, have two daughters, Madison and Mallory.

Jeff Phelps enters his third season as the Bulldogs' defensive line coach in 2022. He joined the Bulldogs on February 4, 2020, after three seasons at Washington State (2017-19) as defensive line coach. He is no stranger to the state of Mississippi as his mother grew up in West Point, less than 30 miles from Starkville.

In 2019, Phelps mentored Lamonte McDougle who was the Cougars highest-graded defensive interior lineman according to Pro Football Focus. McDougle was especially strong in the run game, ranking fifth in the Pac-12 with an 80.6 run-defense grade.

Will Rodgers III led the Cougars in sacks with 4.0 and was second in tackles for loss with 6.0. He racked up 25 total pressures per PFF, which ranked sixth in the conference among defensive interior linemen. Rodgers tied for the league lead in QB hits by a defensive interior lineman with five on the season.

Phelps' 2018 defensive front anchored the Cougar "Speed D" that led the Pac-12 with 38.0 sacks, the ninth-most in Washington State single-season history, and finished second in the league with 88.0 tackles for loss. The defensive line featured just one returning starter but combined for 34.0 tackles for loss and 14.0 sacks, led by All-Pac-12 second-team selection Logan Tago, who set career highs of 10.5 tackles for loss and three sacks. The Cougars finished the season ranked third in the Pac-12 in rushing defense and No. 42 nationally in total defense.

In 2017, Phelps directed a defensive line that produced 45.5 tackles for loss and 20.0 sacks, helping the Cougar defense to rank in the top 20 in eight different categories. He also mentored Hercules Mata'afa to one of the finest seasons in program history as the redshirt-junior garnered Consensus All-America honors and was named the 2017 Polynesian College Football Player of the Year. Mata'afa registered 10.5 sacks and 22.5 tackles for loss and was named the Associated Press Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year.

Phelps arrived in Pullman after six seasons as the defensive line coach at the University of Minnesota (2011-16). During his final season there, the Gophers' defense ranked 12th in the nation in tackles for loss, 14th in rushing yards allowed and 22nd in sacks.

During his six seasons in Minneapolis, Phelps was a part of five bowl teams and coached four players who earned All-Big Ten honors, including 2013 third team All-American Ra'Shede Hagemen, who was a 2014 second-round draft pick by the Atlanta Falcons.

Phelps joined the Minnesota staff after spending five years coaching at Northern Illinois (2006-10). From 2008-10, he coached the Huskies' defensive line. In 2006-07, Phelps was responsible for coaching the defensive tackles.

Phelps coached defensive end Larry English at NIU. English went on to be named the Mid-American Conference's Most Valuable Player twice and was the 2008 MAC Defensive Player of the Year. He was the 16th overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft, going to the San Diego Chargers.

Phelps began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Ball State (1999). He then spent three seasons at DePauw (2000-02), where he coached the running backs for two seasons before going to the defensive side of the ball to coach linebackers. He then spent three seasons at Hillsdale (Mich.) College, where he coached the defensive line from 2003-05 before joining the staff at NIU.

Phelps was a second team All-MAC player at outside linebacker for Ball State following his senior season in 1997. He was also an honorable mention All-MAC selection as a junior. The Chicago native holds a bachelor's degree from Ball State.

Phelps is a graduate of Crete-Monee High School, where he was a three-sport standout, earning seven letters – football (2), wrestling (2), track and field (3).

He and his wife, Tyla, have a son, Carsen, and a daughter, Harlyn.

Steve Spurrier Jr. enters his third season with the Bulldogs in 2022. He was hired as outside receivers coach at MSU on February 4, 2020, after two seasons at Washington State.

During his two seasons in Pullman, Spurrier Jr.'s group helped the Cougars boast the top passing attack and nation's leading passer each year. In 2019, Easop Winston Jr. led the team and tied for second in the Pac-12 in touchdown receptions (11). He also finished second on the team in receptions with 85, just one short of running back Max Borghi, and second on the squad in receiving yards with 970.

Spurrier Jr. saw his 2018 outside receivers unit combine for 23 touchdowns while four players caught 26-plus passes including a pair of receivers who each caught more than 60 passes for the nation's top passing offense. Three outside receivers posted multiple 100-yard games in Tay Martin and Winston Jr. who each also caught eight touchdowns. Meanwhile, Dezmon Patmon finished eighth in the Pac-12 with 816 receiving yards to go along with his five touchdown receptions.

Spurrier Jr. joined Washington State's staff after spending the 2017 season as the assistant head coach/ quarterbacks at Western Kentucky. Spurrier Jr. helped develop Mike White into the Hilltoppers' first Senior Bowl participant at quarterback and just the second quarterback in school history to post multiple seasons of 4,000 or more passing yards. WKU reached the 2017 Autonation Cure Bowl as White's 4,177 passing yards were fourth nationally, while his 368 completions led the nation.

Spurrier Jr.'s collegiate coaching career has included 17 postseason bowl games, including the Sugar Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Cotton Bowl and Orange Bowl, as well as five conference championships (three SEC; two Big 12) and two national championships (Oklahoma, 2000; Florida, 1996).

Spurrier Jr. spent the 2016 season at Oklahoma in an off-field role as a recruiting and offensive specialist, particularly with offensive coordinator Lincoln Riley.

Prior to his time in Norman, Spurrier Jr. served on his father's staff at South Carolina (2005-15) for 11 seasons as the Gamecocks' wide receivers coach. He added responsibilities of passing game coordinator in 2009, recruiting coordinator in 2011 and co-offensive coordinator in 2012. During his time in Columbia, the Gamecocks went to nine bowl games and his receivers featured future NFL stars Sidney Rice, Alshon Jeffery and Kenny McKinley.

Under Spurrier Jr., Jeffery developed into one of South Carolina's all-time greatest receivers, setting school records for career receiving yards (3,042) and 100-yard receiving games (12), and tying the school record for touchdown catches with 23 in 2011. Jeffery's All-America sophomore season (2010) earned him a spot as a Biletnikoff finalist as he tallied a single-season school record 1,517 yards.

Spurrier was also invested in the development of Los Angeles Rams wide receiver Pharoh Cooper, a fourth-round draft pick in 2016. During Cooper's sophomore season (2014), he set the school's single-game receiving yards record with 233 and was named the 2014 Independence Bowl MVP for a nine catch, 170-yard performance against Miami.

The South Carolina record book is filled with receivers coached by Spurrier Jr. On top of Jeffery and Cooper, McKinley became South Carolina's all-time leader in receptions (207) and receiving yards (2,781) in 2008 before Jeffery broke his yardage record three seasons later.

Before joining his father at South Carolina, Spurrier Jr. spent one season at Arizona (2004) under head coach Mike Stoops, two seasons as wide receivers coach in the NFL with the Washington Redskins (2002-03) and was a part of Bob Stoops' rebuilding project at Oklahoma (1999-2001), culminating with a perfect 13-0 record and national championship in 2000. He also worked alongside Leach during the 1999 season at Oklahoma.

A native of Palo Alto, California, Spurrier Jr. played collegiately at Duke where he earned his bachelor's degree in 1994. While working as a graduate assistant at Florida, Spurrier Jr. added his master's in 1996.

Spurrier Jr. and his wife, Melissa, are the parents of triplets, Luke, Gavin and Emmaline; Nolan; twins, Palmer and Hayden, and McKinley.

Jason Washington enters his third season at Mississippi State in 2022. He came to Starkville on February 4, 2020, after three seasons at Texas (2017-19) as the Longhorns' recruiting coordinator and cornerbacks coach.

Washington has a reputation as an elite recruiter. He was named the Big 12's top recruiting coach in 2018 by 247Sports.

Washington's unit helped the Longhorns collect 12 interceptions during the 2019 season, and cornerback D'Shawn Jamison led the team with three pickoffs.

In 2018, both of Washington's cornerbacks earned All-Big 12 honors. Kris Boyd was first-team All-Big 12 after totaling 67 tackles with 16 pass breakups, an interception, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. On the opposite side was fellow senior Davante Davis, who was named honorable mention All-Big 12 and recorded 42 tackles, eight pass breakups, an interception, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.

In 2017, Washington's cornerbacks had a knack for the big play, as the Longhorns returned five interceptions for scores. Boyd led the team with 15 pass breakups and also had two interceptions. Davis and Holton Hill also had two interceptions apiece. Texas racked up 54 pass breakups on the season.

Throughout his career, Washington has coached 10 players who have reached the NFL.

While at Houston (2015-16), Washington helped the defense to a national ranking of 14th during the 2016 regular season. The Cougars had five defensive touchdowns and allowed just 22.6 points per game. Cornerback Howard Wilson led the Cougars with five interceptions, returning one for a touchdown. Houston's defense totaled seven interceptions and 49 pass breakups.

On special teams, Houston punter Dane Roy averaged 40.7 yards per punt and downed 19-of-55 inside the 20-yard line. The Cougars punt return defense ranked fourth nationally allowing just 1.8 yards per return on 10 attempts. Kick returner D'Eriq King averaged more than 25 yards per return and had a 99-yard return for a touchdown.

In his first season at Houston, Washington oversaw arguably the best starting cornerback tandem in the American Athletic Conference and a drastic special teams improvement. Under his leadership, William Jackson III led the nation in PBUs (23) and passed defended (28). Jackson set Houston single-game (7) and season records in passes broken up despite missing the Memphis game with an injury. Wilson was second on the team with seven pass breakups as Houston ranked fourth nationally with 87 passes defended and seventh with 21 interceptions. The duo of Wilson and Jackson combined for four defensive touchdowns in 2015.

The Cougars' special teams unit saw much improvement under Washington in his first season. The kickoff return unit improved from 125th to 28th nationally, kickoff return defense from 75th to 45th, punt return from 99th to 41st and punt return defense from 22nd to fourth. Wilson ranked 19th nationally with an average kickoff return of 26.6 yards, including two touchdowns. Demarcus Ayers was 27th nationally with a punt return average of 11.3 yards to earn first-team All-AAC honors.

Washington arrived in Houston after four seasons at nearby Texas State (2011-14), his second stint in San Marcos, following a four-year stop at Rice (2007-10). Washington's secondary unit helped the Bobcats rank second in the Sun Belt in 2014 with 13 interceptions. Sophomore Germond Williams ranked 17th nationally with four interceptions in just nine games. Craig Mager, who was selected in the third round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the San Diego Charges, was selected to play in the East-West Shrine Game and received All-Sun Belt honors under Washington. Junior David Mims also earned All-SBC honors with five interceptions.

In 2013, Mager was named All-Sun Belt Conference after ranking among league leaders with nine passes defended. Cornerback Darryl Morris was named second-team All-WAC in 2012, ranking among WAC leaders with four interceptions and nine passes defended. Washington also coached the punt return unit at Texas State. The Bobcats ranked seventh nationally in 2013 and led the conference in punt returns after Andy Erickson returned 20 punts for 284 yards. Erickson ranked second nationally averaging 16.7 yards per punt return in 2012.

Washington rejoined Texas State in 2011 after spending four years at Rice where he coached five All-Conference USA defensive backs. The Owls' best season came in 2008 when Rice went 10-3, their best record since the 1950s.

Before his four years at Rice, Washington spent the previous three seasons at Texas State (2004-06). During his third season of his first stint with the Bobcats, Washington produced the Southland Conference leader in interceptions, Walter Musgrove. Musgrove was a two-time All-Southland Conference pick, SLC Student-Athlete of the Year, National Football Foundation Scholar Athlete and a FCS ADA Academic All-Star. Washington also coached two other All-SLC defensive backs in each of his first two seasons in San Marcos.

Washington spent a week during the 2009 season with the Minnesota Vikings as part of the Bill Walsh Minority Coaching Fellowship program that has produced NFL head coaches such as Mike Tomlin, Marvin Lewis and Lovie Smith.

A native of San Antonio, Washington earned a bachelor's degree in 2002 and a master's degree in sport administration in 2004 from Texas State. He was a four-year letterman for the Bobcats in football and baseball. He started as a defensive back in football and was a center fielder on the baseball team.

Washington has one son, Jaxson, and one daughter, Jayla.

Tyson Brown, who spent six seasons at Washington State, including his final two as head strength and conditioning coach, leads the Bulldogs' football strength and conditioning program.

Brown holds a bachelor's degree in exercise science from Sioux Falls and a master's from California University of Pennsylvania. He was the lead assistant under Jason Loscalzo at WSU before briefly accepting the head strength and conditioning coach job at Elon University. When Loscalzo left for the NFL, Leach brought Brown back to Pullman to lead the Cougars' strength and conditioning program efforts.

Prior to his stint with the Cougars, Brown spent one year as associate director of strength and conditioning at South Florida, where he was the lead assistant strength and conditioning coach for football and director of strength and conditioning for volleyball.

Brown spent two years as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Washington before his time at WSU.

In 2008, he was an intern strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater Sioux Falls. A native of Bothell, Washington, Brown worked as a graduate assistant athletic performance coach at Baylor in 2009 and then as a strength coach intern for the NFL's Houston Texans during the 2010 season.

Brown was a two-year football letterman in college, helping Sioux Falls to NAIA national championships in 2006 and 2008 and a runner-up finish in 2007.

Brown is certified by CSCS and USAW. He and his wife, Kinzie, have a son, Brody, and two daughters, Bella and Briar.

Bulldogs Complete Largest Comeback In MSU History

Mississippi State found itself facing a 20-point deficit with just over 12 minutes remaining in its season opener against Louisiana Tech on Saturday. Undeterred, MSU finished with a flurry in all three phases to complete the largest comeback in school history. The 35-34 victory was sealed on the final play as LA Tech's 46-yard field goal fell short to send 44,669 maroon and white faithful home happy. Louisiana Tech took a 34-14 lead following a field goal early in the fourth quarter before State began mounting its comeback. The spark was started on special teams as Lideatrick Griffin returned the ensuing kickoff 70 yards to setup the homestanding Bulldogs at the 31-yard line. Three plays later, Jo'quavious Marks leapt into the end zone to start the rally with 12:01 left. MSU's defense forced a three-and-out to get the ball back quickly. The offense marched 77 yards in seven plays with quarterback Will Rogers completing all five of his passes on the drive to setup Marks again for a 5-yard scoring run to pull MSU within six. Another three-and-out by the defense gave State the ball back with just over six minutes remaining. Rogers was again perfect on all five throws, with the last going to Jaden Walley for a 15-yard touchdown to tie things at 34 before the extra point. In the fourth quarter, Rogers was a perfect 10-of-10 for 128 yards and a touchdown. Louisiana Tech still had 3:37 to make something happen and kept its hopes alive by converting a crucial 4th-and-11 from the MSU 43-yard line. Tech then ran the ball three straight plays - netting just six yards - and called timeout with two ticks remaining. Tech's 46-yard potential game-winner was blocked by Jaden Crumedy to give State its fifth consecutive season-opening win. The Bulldogs finished with 435 total yards, including 370 through the air.

Griffin And Defense Pave Way To Win Over NC State

Lideatrick Griffin electrified the home crowd as he returned the games' opening kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown to set the stage for a 24-10 victory over NC State. Griffin became only the fifth Bulldog all-time to record a 100-yard kickoff return, and in the process, he laid the foundation for a successful night across the board for the Maroon and White. The Bulldog defense was stout, holding NC State out of the end zone until late in the fourth quarter. Emmanuel Forbes paced Mississippi State with a career-high 11 tackles, including 1.5 tackles for loss. MSU finished the evening with nine total tackles for loss, including four sacks. State also forced three turnovers. Jalen Green recorded an interception and fumble recovery. Jett Johnson forced the fumble that was recovered by Green, and Fred Peters also recorded a pick to seal the win with only seconds to play. On the other side of the ball, Will Rogers completed 33 of his 49 pass attempts for 294 yards and two touchdowns. It marked the sophomore's seventh career 200-plus-yard passing game, a total that is tied for ninth in Mississippi State history. Nine different Bulldogs caught passes from Rogers with Jo'quavious Marks hauling in a team-high seven catches and Dillon Johnson pacing State with a career-high 70 receiving yards. Griffin's game-starting touchdown return had the Bulldogs off and running from the opening bell. State led 7-0 after one quarter of play. Following a 45-yard field goal from NC State in the opening moments of the second quarter, the Bulldogs increased their lead just before halftime when Rogers found Malik Heath for a 21-yard scoring pass that completed a 13-play, 83-yard drive. MSU rode its offensive momentum right into the second half. Following Jett Johnson's forced fumble and Green's recovery, State took advantage of a short field. With 8:59 left in the third quarter, Rogers found Jaden Walley on a four-yard touchdown toss to go up 21-3. The Bulldogs added to their advantage in the fourth quarter when Nolan McCord drilled a 32-yard field goal with 12:30 left to play to make it 24-3. NC State was able to close the gap with a touchdown with 1:06 remaining, but after the Wolfpack recovered an onside kick, Peters cemented the MSU win with his interception.

Late Surge Falls Short At Memphis

MSU scored a pair of touchdowns in the final minutes to nearly complete a late comeback, but the Bulldogs ultimately came up short and fell on the road to Memphis, 31-29. Down 28-17 with just over three minutes to play, Will Rogers bookended a Memphis field goal with a nine-yard touchdown pass to Malik Heath and a 36-yard scoring toss to Makai Polk. However, the Bulldogs failed on a potential game-tying two-point conversion attempt when Rogers' scramble came up about a yard short of the goal line. The State signal caller passed for 419 yards, which stands as the eighth-best single-game mark in MSU history. Rogers also threw for three touchdowns as he set new State single-game records in completions and attempts by connecting on 50 of his 67 passes. Polk set career highs in both catches and yardage, hauling in 11 passes for 136 yards. Emmanuel Forbes came through with his sixth career interception. Martin Emerson and Jett Johnson tied for the team lead with eight total tackles each. The Bulldogs scored 17 unanswered points following a Memphis 49-yard fumble return on State's first drive of the game. MSU first clawed into the Tiger lead by putting together its longest scoring drive of the season. Nolan McCord drilled a career-long 39-yard field goal to cap a 17-play series and pull State within four points at 7-3. Early in the second quarter, the Bulldogs surged ahead. Polk hauled in five receptions on MSU's go-ahead drive. With 9:58 left in the period, Dillon Johnson's three-yard run into the end zone put State in front 10-7. Less than five minutes of game action later, the Bulldogs added to their advantage when Rogers connected with Walley on a six-yard touchdown pass that put MSU up 17-7. The score held until the late in the third quarter. Memphis' Seth Henigan threw a pair of touchdown passes – one in the third quarter and one in the fourth – to put the Tigers up 21-17. Then, Memphis later returned a punt 94 yards for a score to go up 28-17 with only 5:36 to play. Following State's failed two-point attempt with 1:32 left, MSU's chances were ended when the Bulldogs weren't able to an onside kick.

State Drops 28-25 Decision To LSU

Mississippi State fell 28-25 to LSU at Davis Wade Stadium in the SEC opener. The Bulldogs trailed 7-3 at halftime, but the Tigers used three second half touchdowns to claim the win. MSU outgained LSU in total yardage in defeat. The Bulldogs posted 486 yards of total offense, paced by Will Rogers' 371 yards passing. The State signal caller completed 47 of 62 attempts and had three touchdown passes. Rogers has now thrown for 300 or more yards in a game five times already in his career, the second-most in school history behind only Dak Prescott. Makai Polk, Jo'quavious Marks and Austin Williams served as three of Rogers' favorite targets. Each caught touchdown passes as Polk finished with 78 yards, Marks tallied 67 and Williams ended with 62. On the ground, Dillon Johnson and Marks led the way for the Bulldogs, who set a new season high in team rushing yardage with 115 yards. Johnson totaled 51 rushing yards on eight attempts while Marks had 46 yards on 13 runs. Defensively, Fred Peters led MSU with nine tackles. The Bulldogs created a turnover as Emmanuel Forbes notched his seventh career pick – a total that leads all the FBS since the start of the 2020 season. LSU took a 7-0 lead less than six minutes into the game and led from that point on. State accumulated its points with a Nolan McCord 23-yard field goal in the second quarter that pulled MSU to within four at 7-3. After falling behind 21-3 in the third, State clawed closer on a 29-yard touchdown pass from Rogers to Polk. LSU went up 28-10 early in the fourth. Rogers would again narrow the margin with his two-yard scoring toss to Williams with 6:48 left and 16-yard touchdown pass to Marks with 1:53 left, but the comeback attempt fell short.

Bulldogs Take Down No. 15 Aggies 26-22

The Bulldogs took down the No. 15 Aggies at Kyle Field as MSU knocked off a ranked Texas A&M team yet again. The Bulldogs have now played a ranked Aggie squad four times since Texas A&M entered the Southeastern Conference in 2012 with victories in three of those meetings. Quarterback Will Rogers led the way. He completed 46 of his 59 passes for 408 yards and matched a career high with three touchdown tosses. It marked Rogers' sixth career game with more than 300 yards through the air, a total that stands second in MSU history behind only Dak Prescott. Much of Rogers' success came on throws to receiver Makai Polk. Polk set a trio of new career highs as he hauled in 13 passes for 126 yards and two touchdowns. Overall, State racked up 438 yards of total offense. Meanwhile MSU's defense held Texas A&M to 297 total yards. It was the State defense that got the Bulldogs going early. After Texas A&M received the opening kickoff, MSU safety Fred Peters intercepted an Aggie pass on the first drive of the game. The Bulldogs followed by cashing in with a Nolan McCord 24-yard field goal to go up 3-0. From there, it became a back-and-forth affair. Texas A&M and MSU alternated touchdown passes later in the first quarter. After the Aggies took a 7-3 lead, Rogers hit Jaden Walley for a one-yard score late in the period and State surged back ahead 10-7. Texas A&M was able to reclaim the lead at 13-10 in the second quarter, courtesy of a pair of field goals. However MSU put together a 12-play, 75-yard drive prior to halftime to shift momentum. State was able to go into the locker room with a 17-13 lead after Rogers hit Polk for a 15-yard score. Rogers and Polk hooked up again in the third quarter. With 6:54 left in the frame, Polk gave MSU a 24-13 advantage when he brought down a 20-yard pass. Texas A&M used a third-quarter touchdown and fourth-quarter field goal to pull back within two points at 24-22. However the Aggie comeback was thwarted when MSU cemented its win with a safety with only 2:02 remaining. State followed by recovering an onside kick, then ran out the clock to wrap the game in MSU Maroon and White.

Bulldogs Fall To Alabama

Under the lights at Davis Wade Stadium, Mississippi State fell 49-9 to visiting No. 5 Alabama. The Bulldogs got 300 yards of passing from quarterback Will Rogers and more than 50 yards of receiving from Makai Polk, Jaden Walley and Malik Heath, but it wasn't enough to earn victory against the Crimson Tide. For Rogers, it was the fifth time this season and seventh time in his career that he's cracked the 300-yard mark. He's second in school history in both categories, behind only Dak Prescott. Prescott had seven games with 300-plus yards in 2015 and finished his career with nine total occurrences. Alabama quarterback Bryce Young led the way for his team as he threw for four touchdowns. The Crimson Tide also picked up a pair of rushing scores from Brian Robinson, Jr., and an interception return for a touchdown by Jordan Battle. Meanwhile Mississippi State's points all came from the leg of Brandon Ruiz. The senior kicker tied a career high with three field goals. He drilled a 44-yarder in the first quarter, which stands as State's longest made kick this season. Ruiz also added a pair of 37-yarders with one in the second quarter and one in the third. Defensively, three Bulldogs had 10 or more tackles, led by linebacker Nathaniel Watson's career-best 16 stops. The total stood as the most tackles in a game by an MSU player since Brandon Wilson's 18 tackles against Louisiana Tech in 2011. Watson also added a sack for the second straight game. Linebacker Jett Johnson and safety Fred Peters each set new career highs as well with 10 tackles apiece for State. It's the first time this season the Bulldogs had multiple players hit double digits in tackles.

State Rolls To 45-6 Win Over Vanderbilt

Mississippi State put forth a strong showing on both sides of the ball, all to the tune of a 45-6 victory over Vanderbilt in The Music City. Will Rogers set a new career high with four touchdown passes and the State defense limited Vandy to just 155 yards of offense on the way to the win. Rogers finished with 386 yards of passing. His four scores were not only a single-game career best, but tied him for fifth-most in a single game in MSU history. A total of 13 different Bulldogs caught passes from Rogers. Jaden Walley had a team-high 72 yards of receiving. Makai Polk added 63 yards and had a pair of touchdown catches. Malik Heath, Rufus Harvey and Rara Thomas also found paydirt. Dillon Johnson and Jo'quavious Marks led MSU on the ground. Johnson had 34 yards rushing, while Marks had 33 yards and a touchdown. MSU's offense racked up 524 total yards. The State defense was as stingy as it has been all year long. The Bulldogs gave up just 146 yards through the air and only nine on the ground. Vanderbilt averaged 3.7 yards per play, including a miniscule 0.5 yards per rush. Mississippi State was in control from beginning to end.

Dawgs Earn 31-17 Homecoming Win Over UK

Facing a 10-0 first-half deficit, State scored 31 unanswered points to ultimately earn a 31-17 Homecoming victory over No. 12 Kentucky. MSU was sparked by a stellar showing from QB Will Rogers, and a defense that forced four turnovers. Rogers set an SEC record for completion percentage (in a single game with more than 30 attempts), connecting on 36 of his 39 throws (92 pct.). Rogers threw for 344 yards, marking the 7th time this year he has thrown for 300-plus yards, tying Dak Prescott's single-season record for 300-plus-yard games. MSU rushed 35 times, which stands as the team's most runs in a single game since head coach Mike Leach took over the program prior to the 2020 season. Jo'quavious Marks ran for 58 yards and touchdown, while Dillon Johnson totaled 41 rushing yards and two scores. The Bulldogs picked up key interceptions from Shawn Preston, Jr., Jalen Green and Cameron Young. The takeaways led to 14 of State's points. UK surged ahead early with a 74-yard punt return for a touchdown in the first and a 41-yard field goal early in the second. State cut into the UK lead midway through the second quarter when Marks capped off an 8-play, 75-yard drive with a 7-yard touchdown run. Prior to half, the Bulldogs claimed the lead with a 75-yard drive, ending with a 9-yard scoring run from Johnson. That made it 14-10 State. MSU used a huge third quarter to put the game out of reach. Brandon Ruiz connected on a 27-yard field goal midway through the period as the Bulldogs went up 17-10. Following Jett Johnson's fumble recovery, Dillon Johnson rumbled into the end zone from a yard out to make it 24-10. The Bulldogs added one more touchdown with 2:51 left in the third on a 25-yard strike from Rogers to Thomas to make it 31-10.

Bulldogs Fall 31-28 At Arkansas

Mississippi State battled back from two-score deficits on two different occasions, but ultimately fell 31-28 on the road at Arkansas. Quarterback Will Rogers connected with Jo'quavious Marks on a 15-yard TD pass with just 2:22 left to put the Bulldogs up 28-23, but the Razorbacks responded with a 10-play, 75-yard scoring drive that accounted for the game's winning points. The Bulldogs had a shot to tie the game in the final seconds, but kicker Nolan McCord's 40-yard field goal try was no good. State trailed by scores of 13-0 and 23-14 earlier in the contest, but each time, fought back to take leads. Rogers threw a 3-yard TD pass to Jaden Walley in the second quarter and had a six-yard strike to Rara Thomas early in the third to put MSU in front 14-13. After Arkansas jumped back ahead with a field goal and touchdown, Rogers and Thomas hooked up again – this time from 37 yards out – to pull State within two points at 23-21 in the fourth quarter. Later, Rogers had his go-ahead TD toss to Marks before Arkansas found the end zone for the game's deciding score with only 21 seconds remaining. Rogers finished the game completing 36 of his 48 passes for 417 yards and four touchdowns. For the season, Rogers cracked the 3,000-yard mark. Rogers is only the second quarterback in MSU history to pass for more than 3,000 yards in a single season. Rogers joined Dak Prescott, who accomplished the feat twice. Marks led the Bulldogs on the ground with 40 rushing yards. Makai Polk had a team-best 117 receiving yards. Safety Shawn Preston, Jr. totaled nine tackles for State. Tyrus Wheat and Cameron Young each had eight.

Largest Comeback Ever Gets MSU Bowl Eligible

Not even a 25-point deficit could deny Mississippi State. Down 28-3 in the second quarter, MSU came roaring back with 40 unanswered points on the way to an eventual 43-34 victory over No. 16 Auburn. It marked the largest come-from-behind victory in MSU history and got the Bulldogs bowl eligible setting the stage for them to play in a postseason game for a 12th-straight season. Will Rogers set a new MSU single-game best with six touchdown passes and totaled 415 yards through the air to lead the Bulldogs offensively. On the defensive side, State limited Auburn to only six second-half points. The Tigers built a 28-3 advantage by midway through the second quarter. Auburn built its lead courtesy of a pair of touchdown rushes – one each by Tank Bigsby and Ja'Varrius Johnson – and Auburn quarterback Bo Nix also threw a pair of touchdown passes to give Auburn a cushion. State's lone points in the early going came on a 34-yard Nolan McCord field goal. Just before halftime though, Rogers' first touchdown pass of the day gave the Bulldogs a spark. Rogers hit Makai Polk from four yards out and MSU trailed just 28-10 at the intermission. The Bulldogs kept scoring when they emerged from the locker room. Rogers threw a pair of touchdown passes in the third quarter, both on three-yard strikes. Jamire Calvin caught one, and Dillon Johnson hauled in the other to pull MSU within five points at 28-23. The Bulldogs surged ahead in the fourth quarter. Rogers hit Polk, Malik Heath and Calvin for touchdown passes in the period and MSU led 43-28. Auburn added a late score, but the Bulldogs held on for the triumph. With the victory, State head coach Mike Leach has now won four road or neutral-site games against AP-ranked opponents, tying Emory Bellard for the school record. Leach now has five ranked wins in his 21 games as MSU's leader, becoming the fastest in school history to notch five wins over ranked foes.

Bulldogs Roll To 55-10 Win Over Tennessee State

Mississippi State scored early and often, and the Bulldogs put forth a dominant defensive showing in a 55-10 win over Tennessee State. The Maroon and White racked up 600 yards on the offensive side of the football and held the Tigers to just 205 yards to pave the way to victory. Quarterback Will Rogers set a new MSU single-season record for passing yardage. The sophomore signal caller threw for 391 yards, pushing him to 4,113 for the year. Rogers surpassed Dak Prescott's previous single-season high of 3,793 yards. Rogers also set a new single-season record for touchdown passes. He threw five of them on Saturday, giving him 34 in 2021. Three of Rogers' scoring tosses went to receiver Austin Williams. Williams finished with 75 receiving yards and his three touchdown catches tied a single-game State record. Williams' fellow receiver, Makai Polk, also had a big day. Polk totaled 110 yards and had a touchdown. His nine catches tied him with Fred Ross for the most single-season receptions in school history (88). Defensively, State was led by linebacker Tyrus Wheat and defensive tackle Nathan Pickering. The duo combined to rack up eight tackles, four sacks and five tackles for loss. State put up 21 first-quarter points and never let up. Rogers sandwiched a pair of touchdown passes to Williams (a 21-yarder and a five-yarder) around a Jo'quavious Marks seven-yard scoring run to build the Bulldog lead. MSU continued to increase the margin as the day went along. Malik Heath and Williams both caught second-quarter touchdown passes from Rogers. Heath had a 56-yard catch and run, and Williams crossed the goal line from 30 yards out. Rogers found Polk in the end zone in the third quarter on a 50-yard pass, in addition to Dillon Johnson notching a 32-yard rushing touchdown. In the fourth quarter, Tennessee State scored its lone points of the day on a 43-yard field goal and a five-yard touchdown run, but Bulldog kicker Nolan McCord answered with a pair of field goals, a 33-yarder and a 43-yarder, to put the exclamation point on the MSU triumph.

Mississippi State Drops 31-21 Decision To Ole Miss

Mississippi State's regular season concluded with a 31-21 loss to Ole Miss. The Bulldogs put up 15 points in the fourth quarter in a comeback attempt but ultimately came up short. MSU outgained its instate rival as the Bulldogs tallied 420 total yards of offense to the Rebels' 388. State was led offensively by quarterback Will Rogers, who completed 38 of his 58 passes for 336 yards and a touchdown. Other top Bulldog performers included Jo'quavious Marks, who led State on the ground with his 45 rushing yards and one touchdown. Makai Polk had 10 catches for 98 yards. Lideatrick Griffin hauled in five passes for 77 yards. Jaden Walley had five catches for 41 yards and a score. Four MSU defenders reached double figures in tackles. Fred Peters had 14. Nathaniel Watson had 13, including a sack. Jalen Green had 12. Jett Johnson had 11, including a tackle for loss. Johnson also had an interception. Mississippi State trailed by just four points at halftime. Nolan McCord made a pair of first-half field goals – a 34-yarder and a 29-yarder – as the Bulldogs headed to the locker room down just 10-6. State's deficit grew to 24-6 as Ole Miss put up touchdowns in the third quarter and early in the fourth. The Bulldogs then tried to rally as they found the end zone twice in the final period. Rogers hit Walley on an 11-yard touchdown pass and Marks crossed the goal line on an 11-yard run, however the late surge wasn't quite enough.

State's Season Concludes With Liberty Bowl Loss

Playing in a postseason game for the 12th straight season, Mississippi State saw its 2021 campaign concluded with a 34-7 loss to Texas Tech in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. The Red Raiders put together a scoring drive on the game's opening series and the Bulldogs played from behind the rest of the evening. Texas Tech built itself a 10-0 lead through one quarter before State answered. Early in the second quarter, the Bulldogs constructed a 10-play, 75-yard drive that was capped off by a 17-yard touchdown pass from Will Rogers to Rara Thomas. That cut the State deficit to 10-7, but it ended up being MSU's lone score of the day. The Red Raiders added a field goal later in the period to take a 13-7 lead into halftime, then added on after the intermission. In the third quarter, Texas Tech found the end zone twice to increase its advantage to 27-7. A fourth quarter Red Raider touchdown capped the scoring. Rogers led the Mississippi State offense with 282 passing yards with a touchdown. Along the way, he became MSU's new single-season record holder for total offense, eclipsing Dak Prescott's previous high. Rogers was selected as MSU's Outstanding Offensive Player of the Game. Makai Polk also made history on Tuesday. He hit the 100-catch mark for the season, becoming only the fifth player in Southeastern Conference history to do so. On the defensive side, Fred Peters was chosen as State's Outstanding Defensive Player of the Game. The safety finished the Liberty Bowl with a team-high 12 tackles, including a quarterback hurry and a pass breakup.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION
COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

MSU has produced four National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athletes/William V. Campbell Trophy finalists with Taveze Calhoun being the most recent in December 2015. Calhoun was the SEC's only representative that year. Calhoun was awarded an $18,000 post graduate scholarship and honored at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York. The Campbell Trophy recognizes an individual as the absolute best football scholar-athlete in the nation and is the highest academic honor in college football.

MISSISSIPPI STATE 12
DUQUESNE 13

January 1, 1937 • Orange Bowl • Miami, Fla.

A desperation 72-yard touchdown pass from tailback Boyd Brumbaugh to end Ernie Hefferlie spelled an end to Mississippi State's upset hopes as Duquesne edged the Bulldogs, 13-12, in the first decade of Orange Bowl history.

With time running out, coach John "Little Clipper" Smith's Dukes went to the air. His team had thrown six straight incompletions before Brumbaugh heaved one after fading back all the way to his own 20-yard line. Hefferlie cradled it in at the State 25 and scored untouched for the game-winner.

"A shouting, shirt-sleeved crowd of 9,210 went wild when Brumbaugh's bull's eye in the final period pulled the Dukes from almost certain defeat," a local newspaper account detailed.

Coach Ralph Sasse's Bulldogs, who ended the year at a hearty 7-3-1 after the postseason clash, scored first on a 10-yard run by back Ike Pickle. Pickle later boomed an 82-yard punt for an Orange Bowl record that still stands.

After Brumbaugh plunged 1 yard and a PAT kick put the Dukes of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, ahead, 7-6, State reversed the advantage again when tailback Pee Wee Armstrong of Meridian lofted a 40-yard touchdown pass to Fred Walters of Laurel to give the Bulldogs a 12-7 lead. That same twosome had combined for a 65-yard scoring pass to give MSU a stunning 13-7 upset at Army during the 1935 season.

Armstrong's scintillating passes had provided State with the impetus to gain the lead. His aerial strikes set up Pickle's touchdown run prior to his throw to Walters to gain Mississippi State the lead.

Brumbaugh later found Hefferlie for the game-winning TD pass in the fourth quarter. The Dukes edged State after two Bulldog conversion tries had failed.

The narrow loss to Duquesne was a microcosm of the '36 season for State. The Maroons lost three games by a total of 20 points.

#13 GEORGETOWN 7

January 1, 1941 • Orange Bowl • Miami, Fla.

The Associated Press proclaimed following State's standout season: "Mississippi State reigns as the undisputed king of football in the Deep South. State's 13-0 trouncing of Alabama and subsequent acceptance of an Orange Bowl bid eliminated any doubt that the Maroons were gridiron kings of these parts."

Almost a year before the United States of America officially entered World War II, Mississippi State downed the Georgetown Hoyas (who reigned strongly in Eastern football circles in those days), 14-7, in the '41 Orange Bowl to end the year with a 10-0-1 record and a No. 9 ranking nationally.

Coach Allyn McKeen's crew scored in the first quarter when tackle John Tripson covered a blocked Hoya punt in the end zone and Wilbur Dees' extra point gave the Bulldogs a quick 7-0 lead.

State's rugged defense took control in the second quarter after the Bulldogs had jumped ahead 14-0 when tailback Billy Jefferson scored on a 2-yard dive play and Sonny Bruce kicked the PAT.

Georgetown dented Coach McKeen's vaunted defense for the lone Hoyas' TD of the day in the third quarter when Benny Castiglia hit paydirt on a 2-yard run. But MSU managed good ball control behind the running of tailback Harvey Johnson and the defensive work of All-America end Buddy Elrod to secure its first bowl win.

State was led by Starkville native Hunter Corhern, a captain of the team and an outstanding guard. MSU was considered to have the finest line in the South during the '40 season, a group that boasted three All-Southeastern Conference performers, plus the aforementioned Elrod, a consensus All-America.

When asked to compare all his great teams at Mississippi State, head coach Allyn McKeen said, "Some of the school's greatest wins came during the 1939 season, but I have to go with the 1940 team as my best."

MISSISSIPPI STATE 16
NC STATE 12

December 21, 1963 • Philadelphia Municipal Stadium • Philadelphia, Pa.

Hot coffee froze on press box ledges between kickoff and halftime, but the action on the field was warm enough to offset eight-degree temperatures and 17 mile-per-hour winds outside as coach Paul Davis' Bulldogs took a 16-12 win over NC State.

As the Bulldogs capped a 7-2-2 season before their first national television audience on NBC, with the legendary Lindsey Nelson providing play-by-play, at Philadelphia Stadium a blocked punt helped provide MSU's margin of victory for the second bowl game in a row.

In the first quarter, MSU end Bill McGuire blocked a Dave Houtz punt at the NC State 26, and fellow end Tommy Inman scooped up the loose football and ran it 11 yards for an MSU score. Justin Canale's PAT made it 7-0. Quarterback Sonny Fisher gave the Bulldogs a little more breathing room later in the quarter as the Laurel, Mississippi, native sprinted three yards for a second touchdown. Canale's extra-point kick failed, but the future pro football standout later redeemed himself.

He gave MSU a 16-0 second-quarter lead with a 43-yard field goal into the gusty wind.

But NC State made a bit of a comeback bid, aided by 122 yards on 11 penalties assessed against the aggressive Bulldogs. The Wolfpack scored the last two touchdowns of the game, but both two-point conversion attempts failed.

Coach Davis and his team had heaters on the State bench and a plexiglas canopy to protect them from the frigid air.

"The defense did a good job all day, especially considering the conditions," Davis said. "We had a stronger line."

MISSISSIPPI STATE 26
NORTH CAROLINA 24

December 28, 1974 • Sun Bowl • El Paso, Texas

Mississippi State's 26-24 Sun Bowl win over North Carolina was one of the truly great contests of the 1974-75 bowl season.

Coach Bob Tyler's Bulldogs, who finished 9-3 and No. 18 in the nation, set the stage for the game when Most Valuable Offensive Player Terry Vitrano took a handoff from quarterback Rockey Felker and sprinted 55 yards on the game's opening play.

While a rising fog blanketed the field during most of the first half, Vitrano gained big chunks of real estate to end the day with 164 yards on 20 carries, including a game-winning, 2-yard touchdown run.

That run capped a 6:29 drive that ate most of the fourth-quarter clock, ending at the 3:41 mark. Three times MSU faced third downs on the drive and State faced a fourth-and-2 at the UNC 25-yard line, where Felker called his own number, clawing for 15 yards. Felker then ran eight more yards to set up Vitrano winning score.

The drive reminded both Tyler and Felker of the Bulldogs' 29-28 win over Memphis State earlier in the year, a game in which State drove 98 yards in the closing two minutes for the win.

All-America defensive tackle Jimmy Webb, named Most Valuable Defensive Player in the game, registered the most critical of his 12 tackles on the day on a fourth-and-short situation at midfield in the fourth quarter to preserve the MSU win.

MSU's All-SEC tailback Walter Packer piled up 183 yards on 24 attempts, scoring on runs of 1 and 16 yards while Vic Nickels kicked field goals of 24 and 32 yards.

Mississippi State's 455 yards of rushing, which still stand as a Sun Bowl record, were just a bit much for the Tar Heels, coached by MSU grad Bill Dooley.

"This team was better than we expected in a lot of ways," Tyler said. "I think we're a year ahead. We established unity in our program that usually takes two seasons to establish. I've never been more confident or enthusiastic about the future than I am right now."

#8 NEBRASKA 31

December 27, 1980 • Sun Bowl • El Paso, Texas

The scene was the same as six years earlier in the Sun Bowl when Mississippi State engaged a team that had as much talent as any football power in the nation.

This bowl trip proved to be less successful, however, as coach Tom Osborne's Huskers prevailed in a 31-17 contest.

Mississippi State had won five consecutive regular-season games to enter the contest with a 9-2 record under coach Emory Bellard, but Nebraska was just a bit too deep and powerful as the Huskers took a 17-0 halftime lead.

State's high-powered offensive attack, which set school records for total offense and rushing offense, cut the margin to 24-17 behind the option play of freshman quarterback John Bond of Valdosta, Georgia. He ran for one touchdown on a 1-yard sneak and hit all-SEC tailback Michael Haddix of Walnut, Mississippi, for an 11-yard TD pass and MSU's final touchdown.

The day, however, belonged to Nebraska's defense, which held Bond to minus-8 yards rushing on 16 carries, and to seven completions on 19 attempts with two interceptions.

Sophomore kicker Dana Moore from Baton Rouge, Louisiana, booted a 47-yard field goal and had a 64-yard punt, enabling him to achieve an MSU-record, 50-yard punting average for the afternoon.

"I am proud of our team and the season we had," Bellard said. "We just flat out gave Nebraska too many opportunities. Our defense played well enough to win. Looking at what we have, we will be back next year."

MISSISSIPPI STATE 10
KANSAS 0

December 31, 1981 • Legion Field • Birmingham, Ala.

With Defensive Most Valuable Player and All-America linebacker Johnie Cooks of Leland, Mississippi, leading a fierce charge, Mississippi State scored its first bowl shutout win by downing the Kansas Jayhawks of the Big Eight Conference, 10-0, to improve its bowl record to 4-2.

It was, indeed, a day for the defense.

The Bulldogs, aided by a steady mist that fell throughout the day, held Kansas to 35 yards rushing on 40 attempts, intercepted a pair of Jayhawk passes, and forced one fumble. State recorded its first shutout since 1979.

Lightning struck early for the Bulldogs as All-SEC defensive back Rob Fesmire of Nashville, Tennessee, recovered a Ricky Green fumble on the opening kickoff and the opportunistic Bulldogs scored on the next play. Quarterback John Bond, State's Offensive Most Valuable Player and the game's MVP, sprinted 17 yards around right end on the first play from scrimmage and Bob Morgan's PAT gave the Bulldogs an early 7-0 lead.

The place kicker Dana Moore iced the game with a 22-yard field goal with just over 11 minutes left in the first half for the final margin of victory. The Bulldogs advanced to 8-4 and moved up to No. 17 in the final AP national poll.

Wingback Danny Knight of Natchez, Mississippi, contributed a big 37-yard sprint down the left sideline on a third-and-long situation while Cooks, defensive tackles Glen Collins, Earnest Barnes and a number of unsung heroes on the specialty teams gathered together to provide the Bulldogs with the ingredients necessary for a satisfying bowl win.

"The whole defensive unit played extremely well," MSU head coach Emory Bellard said. "We didn't ring the bell quite enough on offense, but we did move the ball down the field a good bit."

MISSISSIPPI STATE 15
AIR FORCE 38

December 29, 1991 • Liberty Bowl • Memphis, Tenn.

A then-record Liberty Bowl crowd of 61,497 looked on as the wishbone-attack of the Air Force Academy spoiled Mississippi State's return to the bowl scene with a 38-15 victory over the Bulldogs in the 33rd annual Liberty Bowl postseason contest.

Directed by All-WAC quarterback and Liberty Bowl MVP Rob Perez, the Falcons piled up 318 net yards rushing while attempting only two passes in this ESPN telecast. A potent ground attack earned AFA a 37:34-22:26 edge in possession time.

The Falcons jumped on MSU early as they posted three-straight touchdowns before the Bulldogs dented the scoreboard just before halftime. AFA scored on a pair of 1-yard plunges by Jason Jones and Perez in the opening stanza. A 35-yard fumble return by Air Force's Shannon Yates at the 6:12 mark of the second quarter stretched the lead to 21-0.

The Bulldogs got on the scoreboard with the final score of the first half, a 4-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Sleepy Robinson to tight end Trenell Edwards.

After the intermission, AFA added a third-quarter, 20-yard field goal by Joe Wood and a 31-yard touchdown gallop by Scott Hufford to build the Falcons' insurmountable lead to 31-7 with 14:19 remaining in the contest.

Making its first bowl appearance in 10 years, MSU scored its final points on a 7-yard run by fullback Michael Davis with 7:23 left on the game clock.

#19 NORTH CAROLINA 21

January 1, 1993 • Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Despite jumping out to a 14-0 first-quarter lead, Mississippi State couldn't hold off a North Carolina squad playing an inspired second half as the Tar Heels posted a 21-17 victory in the first Peach Bowl held inside the Georgia Dome.

The Bulldogs jumped on top early, scoring on their first possession when Greg Plump found Olanda Truitt on a 2-yard touchdown pass. MSU added to that lead when Kenny Roberts raced 22 yards on the final play of the first quarter to give the Bulldogs a 14-0 lead.

State had a chance to put the game away in the second quarter, but a pair of Plump-to-Truitt touchdown passes were called back due to Bulldog holding penalties.

Trailing 14-0 at halftime, North Carolina took the second half kickoff and drove 82 yards to score on Natrone Means' 1-yard plunge. Later in the third period, the Tar Heels' Bracey Walker broke through to block a Todd Jordan punt and raced 24 yards into the end zone to tie the game at 14-14.

North Carolina took the lead for good early in the fourth quarter when UNC's Cliff Baskerville intercepted a Plump pass and returned it 44 yards for the go-ahead touchdown.

After Chris Gardner's 46-yard field goal made the score 21-17, the Bulldogs had their chances to win the game late. MSU drove inside the Tar Heel 30 twice in the game's final three minutes, but an interception and turnover on downs, respectively, doomed the Bulldogs' final chances.

27th ANNUAL PEACH BOWL

#16 MISSISSIPPI STATE 24
#23 NC STATE 28

January 2, 1995 • Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

For the second time in three years, Mississippi State earned a berth in the Peach Bowl. And for the second time in three years, the Bulldogs held a third-quarter lead over its counterpart. But again, State could not maintain that advantage, dropping a 28-24 decision to NC State.

Like it had done two years prior, Mississippi State gained an early advantage in this Peach Bowl match-up. Place kicker Tim Rogers, MSU's Offensive Player of the Game, booted a 37-yard field goal just 2:21 into the contest, and the Bulldogs had a 3-0 advantage. It would be the first of a bowl-record and school-standard tying five field goals for Rogers.

But, as NC State was able to do throughout the game, the Wolfpack erased that early lead. Running back Tremayne Stephens capped an 80-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run to give NCSU a 7-3 lead.

Rogers and Steve Videtich traded field goals around the first-quarter break before the Bulldogs mounted a touchdown drive of their own. Senior running back Michael Davis scored from 11 yards out to give MSU a 13-10 edge.

A pair of big plays opened the door for the Bulldogs to take control of the game as the second half began. Forcing the 'Pack to punt on their first series of the second half, Andre Bennett blocked the NC State kick into the end zone for a safety, and MSU had a two-point lead.

On the ensuing free kick, Keffer McGee returned the punt an MSU-bowl-record 50 yards, putting the Bulldogs in business at the NCSU 15-yard line. Unable to advance the ball into the end zone, State settled for a Rogers field goal and its lead was just 18-13.

Three plays later, however, Larry Williams, State's Defensive Player of the Game, put his team back in scoring position with a standout defensive play. On a second-and-16 play from the NCSU 30, Williams sacked quarterback Terry Harvey, stripped him of the football, and then recovered the pigskin at the 21.

But once again, the Bulldog attack was not able to capitalize, and Rogers was forced to convert a 36-yard field goal.

Rejuvenated by the disaster averted, NC State struck for a game-tying touchdown and two-point conversion at the close of the third period. Harvey hit Dallas Dickerson from three yards out for the score, and then ran for the extra points.

The Wolfpack used a big play of their own, a 62-yard pass play to set up their go-ahead score. Freshman fullback Carlos King bulled in from 11 yards away and State was down 28-21.

#20 TEXAS 38

January 1, 1999 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas, Texas

Playing in their first traditional New Year's Day bowl game since the 1941 Orange Bowl, the Bulldogs faced an enormous task in trying to stop the University of Texas and its Heisman Trophy winner Ricky Williams. Behind Williams' then-Cotton Bowl-record 203 yards rushing and two touchdowns, the Longhorns snapped their seven-game losing slide to Jackie Sherrill and defeated Mississippi State 38-11 in the Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl Classic.

Texas struck early in the contest behind the arm of quarterback Major Applewhite. The freshman found Wayne McGarity late in the opening period on a 59-yard scoring strike, giving Texas an early 7-0 lead.

The Longhorns took advantage of good field position and a long pass play to take a 14-0 lead, as Applewhite again called McGarity's number for a 52-yard touchdown with 5:11 to go in the first half.

Mississippi State would close out the scoring in the half with a 39-yard field goal from senior Brian Hazelwood.

After showcasing their passing game in the first half, Texas began to exploit a tired Bulldog defense with a running game that featured the NCAA's career rushing leader in Williams, who got the scoring started in the second half with a 37-yard gallop to stretch the Longhorns' lead to 21-3 just 2:26 into the second half. A Kris Stockton field goal would extend the UT lead to 24-3 six minutes later.

The Bulldog offense, led by James Johnson's 112 yards on the ground, still struggled to find its niche against a stubborn Texas defense. An injury to star all-purpose receiver Kevin Prentiss in the opening half made their task even more difficult. Unable to keep the weary MSU defense off the field, the Bulldogs were victimized by another Williams' scoring run at the 2:42 mark of the third period as Texas grabbed control of the contest with a 31-3 advantage.

#15 MISSISSIPPI STATE 17
CLEMSON 7

December 30, 1999 • Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Behind the impetus that had been the key all season — defense — Mississippi State downed Clemson, 17-7, in the 1999 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl in Atlanta's Georgia Dome.

The win gave State its 10th victory of the season, grouping the '99 Bulldogs with MSU's '40 edition which also posted 10 victories.

MSU notched the win despite allowing the most yardage it had all season (391), with 301 of that coming from quarterback Brandon Streeter who passed 50 times in the game.

Defense was the norm in the first half for both squads as the teams played to a scoreless tie at halftime. The closest either team got to a score in the first half was when Clemson advanced to State's 9-yard line late in the first quarter. But Tiger Tony Lazzara's field goal attempt was blocked by Bulldog senior Robert Bean, who registered his seventh career blocked kick.

State wasted little time breaking the scoring ice in the second half. After Pig Prather returned the opening kickoff after intermission 45 yards to the MSU 47-yard line, the Bulldogs drove 31 yards on seven plays to set up a 39-yard field goal from Scott Westerfield at the 12:39 mark.

Three possessions later, Clemson threatened to answer, driving to the State 13 where it faced a fourth-and-7. The Tigers elected to go for it, but the MSU defense held firm, with defensive lineman John Hilliard batting down a Streeter pass.

The quarter would end with State leading 3-0. The fourth quarter would be quite a different story in terms of point production, as the teams combined for three touchdowns in the final frame.

State extended its lead to 10-0 on the first full drive of the final period, going 43 yards on 10 plays with quarterback Wayne Madkin scrambling for a 2-yard score. The drive was set up at Clemson's 43-yard line on an interception by Bulldog Eugene Clinton, one of five State pickoffs in the contest.

Clemson would answer on the ensuing possession with its only score of the night. The Tigers drove 70 yards on eight plays with Streeter diving in from a yard out.

But State was not intimidated. The Bulldogs answered that challenge with a solid eight-play, 57-yard charge of their own. Madkin, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, found tailback Dontae Walker on the left side and Walker jaunted 15 yards for the touchdown which iced the game for MSU at 17-7 with 4:31 remaining in regulation.

MISSISSIPPI STATE 43
TEXAS A&M 41 (OT)

December 31, 2000 • Independence Bowl • Shreveport, La.

Willie Blade blocked an extra point, Julius Griffith ran it to the end zone for a two-point conversion, and Wayne Madkin scored from 6 yards out — all in overtime — to give Mississippi State a hard-fought, 43-41 decision over Texas A&M in the snow-filled Independence Bowl.

The Aggies took advantage of a couple of early MSU miscues on the snow-covered field to take a 14-0 edge seven minutes into the game. After scoring following a mishandled MSU snap just over two minutes into the contest, A&M continued to control momentum on fullback Ja'Mar Toombs' 4-yard plunge. Toombs had a game-high 193 yards.

Jackie Sherrill's Bulldogs fought back in the second quarter. With Toombs running through the State defense, Dontae Walker returned the favor to the Aggie stoppers, tallying 143 yards of his own. The sophomore took a handoff up the middle and scurried for 40 of those yards over the goal line to cut the lead.

With just over a minute until halftime, State scored behind Madkin. After the junior quarterback rushed for 10 yards, he connected on two pass plays, the second a 4-yard score to Dicenzo Miller to tie the game at 14.

A&M bounced back with 31 seconds left in the half to take a 20-14 lead into the locker room. Quarterback Mark Farris lofted a ball high and deep into the heavy falling snow, finding Robert Ferguson on a 42-yard score.

The Aggies tried to put the game out of reach with two fourth-quarter touchdowns. On the opening play of the period, Farris once again went deep, this time connecting with Bethel Johnson on a 35-yard strike. A two-point conversion put the Aggies up 28-21. Toombs extended the lead on the following possession, rushing in from 13 yards to give A&M a 35-21 edge.

Walker cut the lead back to seven as he rushed in from 32 yards out, and, after a Marco Minor interception put MSU at the Aggie 4-yard line, Madkin found tight end Donald Lee in the end zone for the touchdown that sent the game into overtime, tied 35-35.

In the extra session, Toombs rushed in from 25 yards out on the first play to put A&M up 41-35. Blade reached up and blocked the Aggie extra point try. Eugene Clinton picked up the loose ball and pitched to Griffith who ran it in for two points.

Faced with a must-score situation on State's first overtime try, Madkin rushed down to the Aggies' 6-yard line and then took a keeper into the end zone to clinch the 43-41 win in what has become known as "Snow Bowl 2000".

MISSISSIPPI STATE 10
UCF 3

December 29, 2007 • Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium • Memphis, Tenn.

Mississippi State cashed in on UCF's fourth turnover of the game, marching to the lone touchdown of the day late in the fourth quarter, to defeat the Knights 10-3 in the 49th renewal of the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, a game that was otherwise very defensive in nature.

With the win, MSU ended the 2007 season at 8-5, its most wins since 2000, and improved to 2-0 all-time over UCF which ended the year 10-4 after winning its last seven games and claiming the Conference USA crown. The Bulldogs also improved to 7-6 all-time in bowl games with the victory.

The late score, a 1-yard plunge by running back Anthony Dixon, came with just 1:54 remaining in the game. It capped a 10-play, 59-yard drive, State's longest of the day by almost 20 yards, that was setup by Bulldog Keith Fitzhugh's interception of Knight quarterback Kyle Israel, his third throwing miscue of the contest.

But until that point in the game, neither team had generated much offense in a game very much controlled by the defenses. Only two second quarter field goals - one by each team - graced the scoreboard in the first three quarters and the teams would combined for just 418 yards of total offense in the affair.

After a scoreless first quarter started what tied the lowest scoring first half in Liberty Bowl history, UCF finally broke scoring ice after gaining excellent field position at the Bulldog 46 early in the second period. The Knights then moved the ball 18 yards to set up a Michael Torres 45-yard field goal that just cleared the crossbar. UCF led 3-0 with 11:49 to go before the intermission.

After the Knights forced a State punt on the next drive, the Bulldogs got their first break of the afternoon. MSU's Derek Pegues, named the game's Most Valuable Player, picked off a pass at the Knight 46 and returned it 40 yards to the 6-yard line. UCF stood strong, however, and held MSU to a 22-yard Adam Carlson field goal, tying the game at the 6:02 mark.

UCF would have scoring chances on two consecutive drives in the third and fourth quarters but Torres, who came into the game having hit 19-of-21 field goals on the year, would miss from 32 and 37 yards on those drives, negating some offensive momentum that the Knights had built at that point in the contest.

Dixon ended the day with 86 yards on 24 carries for the Bulldogs, who managed just 198 yards from scrimmage the entire game.

The game's attendance of 63,816 established a Liberty Bowl record. The previous record of 61,497 was set in 1991 when the Bulldogs played Air Force.

#21 MISSISSIPPI STATE 52
MICHIGAN 14

January 1, 2011 • EverBank Field • Jacksonville, Fla.

It was an offensive clinic from start to finish for Mississippi State, as the Bulldogs manufactured 485 total yards en route to a dominating 52-14 win against Michigan in the 66th annual Gator Bowl at EverBank Field.

Mississippi State set several school bowl records with points scored (52) and margin of victory (38). In addition, the 485 total yards of offense were second only to the 499 gained against North Carolina in the 1974 Sun Bowl at game's end.

Chris Relf, named the game's MVP, completed 18 of his 23 passes for 281 yards and three touchdowns. Relf, a junior from Montgomery, Alabama, also scored on the ground from 1-yard out and finished with 311 total yards.

As prolific as MSU's offense was, so too was the defense. The Bulldogs held the Wolverines (7-6) to 342 yards, with 153 coming in the opening quarter. Michigan did enjoy a 14-10 lead after the first frame, but failed to score another point the remainder of the game.

Quarterback Denard Robinson was limited to a season-low 51 yards after grounding out 59 in the first quarter. Robinson's arm produced the game's first points when he connected with Roy Roundtree for a 10-yard scoring strike. MSU quickly answered, though, and evened the score when Relf hit Arceto Clark from 4 yards out.

On their next possession, the Bulldogs took their first lead at 10-7 on a 42-yard field goal by Derek DePasquale. Back came the Wolverines, however, who went back on top following a 27-yard touchdown pass from Robinson to Martavious Odoms.

That play, though, would be Michigan's last highlight of the game. From that point, it was all Mississippi State.

With 11:38 left in the first half, Vick Ballard scored the first of his three touchdowns to give MSU a 17-14 lead. Then with 6:35 remaining, Relf found the end zone to extend the advantage to 24-14.

But the Bulldogs weren't done, as they scored again with 25 seconds left, this time on a 15-yard pass from Relf to Ricco Sanders, his first career TD reception, for a 31-14 lead.

In the second half, the Bulldogs, who converted 9 of their 17 third-down attempts and were 5-of-5 on fourth down, got two more touchdowns from Ballard covering 1 and 7 yards. Ballard finished the year with 19 rushing touchdowns, breaking the single-season mark of 16 set by Jackie Parker in 1952.

MSU's final points were the result of a 31-yard pass from Relf to Michael Carr, the first touchdown of his career.

MISSISSIPPI STATE 23
WAKE FOREST 17

December 30, 2011 • LP Field • Nashville, Tenn.

Donning the maroon and white for the final time, senior running back Vick Ballard put the team on his back as he rushed for a career-high 180 yards and two touchdowns to propel Mississippi State to a 23-17 victory against Wake Forest in the Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl.

The Pascagoula, Mississippi, native was named MVP, while his production was the second best in MSU bowl history.

It was the Bulldogs' fifth consecutive bowl win, a streak that tied Rutgers for the longest in the nation at the time. MSU also improved to 9-6 in bowl outings, with a 4-2 mark against ACC foes.

Ballard deserves a bulk of the credit for MSU's latest achievement, breaking free down the sidelines for a 60-yard scoring scamper with 34 seconds left in the opening quarter to even the game at 7-apiece after the Demon Deacons had scored on a 14-yard run by Brandon Pendergrass.

In the second quarter, Mississippi State turned to its passing game to take the lead for good when senior quarterback Chris Relf connected with a wide open Arceto Clark for a 31-yard scoring strike and a 13-7 advantage following the missed PAT. The touchdown was set up when junior defensive end and All-American Fletcher Cox blocked a Wake Forest field goal.

The final points of the half resulted in a 33-yard Derek DePasquale field goal which put MSU up, 16-7.

In the second half, though, Wake Forest grabbed the early momentum when Tommy Bohanon closed the gap to 16-14 on a 1-yard plunge. However, it would be as close as the Demon Deacons would get.

Ballard made sure of that in the fourth quarter when he broke free for a 72-yard touchdown, the longest in MSU bowl history, to swell the lead to 23-14.

Wake would score again on a 46-yard field goal by Jimmy Newman, but from that point the MSU defense thwarted any comeback hopes by taking its play to another level.

Offensively, MSU outgained Wake, 382-287. Relf threw for 129 yards on 12-of-19 passing, while also rushing for another 64 yards.

The defense was led by the play of Cox and Corey Broomfield, who registered a career-best two tackles behind the line of scrimmage to go along with a team-high nine tackles. It was a unit that recorded 6.0 sacks, the most since having 7.0 in a 47-35 home win against No. 3 Florida on Sept. 30, 2000.

#20 NORTHWESTERN 34

January 1, 2013 • EverBank Field • Jacksonville, Fla.

The No. 20 Northwestern Wildcats (10-3) downed the Mississippi State Bulldogs (9-5), 34-20, in the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl.

Northwestern wasted no time getting on the board when Quentin Williams returned a Tyler Russell interception 29 yards just 47 seconds into the game.

Jeff Budzien added a pair of field goals on the Wildcats next two drives from 34 and 37 yards, respectively. The Bulldog defense then stopped the Northwestern offense on back-to-back drives leading to MSU's first points of the day.

Devon Bell got the scoring going with a 27-yard field goal. After MSU forced a three-and-out, Russell connected with Arceto Clark for an 18-yard touchdown and sent State to the locker room only trailing by three.

Nickoe Whitley stopped Northwestern's first drive of the second half with the first of his two interceptions on the day. Three minutes later, Bell tied his career-long with a 47-yard field goal to square the game at 13 apiece.

The Wildcats quickly retook the lead with a six-play, 76-yard drive that only took 1:12 off the clock and then added another touchdown with 1:35 left in the third quarter to take 27-13 lead into the final stanza.

MSU tacked on another touchdown when Russell floated a pass to Malcolm Johnson in the center of the end zone just 3:18 into the fourth quarter.

The MSU defense forced another three-and-out on Northwestern's next drive but, Russell's fourth interception of the day was returned 44 yards to the 5-yard line. The Wildcats punched in their final touchdown to secure the win.

Josh Robinson finished the game as State's leading rusher with 91 yards on seven carries. Junior LaDarius Perkins added 85 yards on 19 carries.

Clark finished with three catches for 36 yards and a touchdown, while Johnson hauled in two catches for 24 yards and a score. Chad Bumphis also grabbed three catches for 18 yards in his final game as a Bulldog.

Russell completed 12-of-28 for 106 yards, two touchdowns and four interceptions.

MISSISSIPPI STATE 44
RICE 7

December 31, 2013 • Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium • Memphis, Tenn.

Mississippi State ended the year and its 2013 season with a fitting celebration, ousting the Rice Owls, 44-7, to claim victory in the 55th AutoZone Liberty Bowl. The margin of victory was the largest in any bowl game played 2013.

With the win, the Bulldogs secured their fourth straight winning season and Dan Mullen earned the record for most bowl wins by any MSU coach ever.

State dominated the game on both sides of the ball, with the defense holding Rice's top-15 national rushing attack to only 61 yards on the ground in the game, while the Bulldog offense racked up 533 total yards on the other side of the ball.

After the Owls took an early 7-0 lead, the Bulldogs went on to score 44 unanswered points in the convincing win. Five different State players scored touchdowns in the contest.

State set school and Liberty Bowl records in the game. Sophomore quarterback Dak Prescott accounted for five touchdowns responsible for (a Liberty Bowl record) while throwing for 283 yards and three scores and rushing for two others. Junior receiver Jameon Lewis set the all-time MSU record for receiving yards in any game - regular or post season - with 220 yards on nine catches.

MSU ended 2013 on a flurry, winning consecutive overtime games at Arkansas and against arch rival Ole Miss at home to become bowl eligible.

#12 GEORGIA TECH 49

December 31, 2014 • Sun Life Stadium • Miami Gardens, Fla.

Mississippi State fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter and Georgia Tech's triple-option attack proved to be the difference in a 49-34 score in the 2014 Capital One Orange Bowl at Sun Life Stadium. It was the Bulldogs' first appearance in the contest in 73 years, capping a 10-win season.

A turnover on MSU's first possession led to a Tech touchdown, setting the tone for the rest of the evening. Both teams combined for nearly 1,200 total yards with most of State's coming through the air and nearly all of Tech's on the ground.

MSU junior quarterback Dak Prescott set several records over the course of the evening, throwing for over 400 yards and becoming the all-time record Bulldog holder for yards in a career at MSU, surpassing Don Smith. He also set the school single-game record for total offense with exactly 500 yards against Tech, 453 coming through the air. The highlight of the evening was Prescott's Hail Mary 42-yard touchdown pass to Fred Ross as time expired in the first half. Ross caught the touchdown off a deflection in the end zone that pulled the Bulldogs to within 21-20.

However, Tech's ground attack quickly got rolling in the second half with a 69-yard touchdown run a minute into the third quarter. The Yellow Jackets scored 21 straight points. MSU's De'Runnya Wilson caught two touchdown passes in the fourth quarter but it proved to be too late.

NC STATE 28
MISSISSIPPI STATE 51

December 30, 2015 • Bank of America Stadium • Charlotte, N.C.

In a fitting end to the greatest career in MSU history, Dak Prescott threw for a then-Belk Bowl-record 380 yards and four touchdowns on a rain-soaked field as MSU capped a nine-win season with a 51-28 blowout of NC State in Charlotte.

Selected the game MVP, Prescott completed 25-of-42 passes and ran for 47 yards joining Colin Kaepernick, Tim Tebow, Dan LeFevour as the only players in FBS history to throw for 9,000 yards and run for 2,500 yards in a career. The Bulldog defense set the tone early. On the first play from scrimmage, defensive end Jonathan Calvin hit Jacoby Brissett as he released the ball and linebacker Gerri Green came up with the diving interception. Five plays later, Fred Ross hauled in a pass from Prescott in the left flat, turned up the left sideline and raced 14 yards for a score.

Brissett had another pass picked off later in the first quarter and Prescott capitalized by finding De'Runnya Wilson for a 28-yard scoring strike. MSU made it 21-0 when Ross scored on a 33-yard reverse.

Prescott lobbed his third TD pass of the game to Holloway over a blitzing defense to put the Bulldogs up 37-21 late in the third quarter. The senior quarterback hit Holloway in stride on a go route along the right sideline for a 55-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter.

Beniquez Brown and J.T. Gray led all tacklers with nine.

Prescott was lifted in the final minute to a standing ovation. The win propelled MSU to back-to-back seasons of at least nine victories for the first time in school history.

MIAMI [OHIO] 16
MISSISSIPPI STATE 17

December 26, 2016 • Tropicana Field • St. Petersburg, Fla.

A pair of blocked kicks, a field goal and two touchdown runs from quarterback Nick Fitzgerald led Mississippi State to a 17-16 victory over Miami [Ohio] in the 2016 St. Petersburg Bowl. With some last-second theatrics, State's Nelson Adams blocked Miami's potential game-winning field goal attempt with five seconds left to lift MSU to the win.

It was MSU's second block of the game with the Bulldogs' Johnathan Calvin also knocking down a Miami extra point attempt early in the game that would ultimately provide the one-point difference in State's triumph. Fitzgerald was named MVP of the game after totaling 268 yards and two touchdowns. He completed 13-of-26 passes for 126 yards, while he tied Anthony Dixon's program record with his eighth 100-yard rushing game of the year, running for a total of 142 yards and two touchdowns.

After a slow start to the game (State trailed 9-0 in the second quarter), MSU's offense began to pick up near the end of the first half, scoring on a 2-yard keeper by Fitzgerald with 22 seconds left before the intermission. Following a 44-yard touchdown run by Fitzgerald and an interception by sophomore cornerback Jamoral Graham in the third quarter, junior place kicker Westin Graves gave MSU its first lead of the game in the fourth quarter, hitting a 36-yard field goal to put the Bulldogs up 17-16.

The Bulldogs were paced defensively by senior linebacker Richie Brown with nine tackles, in addition to a forced fumble.

LOUISVILLE 27
#23 MISSISSIPPI STATE 31

December 30, 2017 • EverBank Field • Jacksonville, Fla.

With an interim coaching staff in place and injuries keeping big-time player makers off the field, true freshman Keytaon Thompson, in his first-ever start at quarterback, turned in a record-breaking performance against Heisman Trophy winner Lamar Jackson and Louisville as MSU capped off a nine-win season and earned the program's third consecutive bowl victory ousting the Cardinals 31-27 in Jacksonville.

Thompson finished 11-of-20 passing for 127 yards and one interception. The true freshman quarterback posted an MSU bowl record with 27 rushing attempts for 147 yards and three rushing scores. Ultimately, MSU racked up 404 yards of offense behind Thompson's leadership.

MSU's defense kept Jackson contained as the Bulldog defense recorded six pass break-ups, 6.0 sacks and four interceptions. Selected as the TaxSlayer Bowl MVP, Mark McLaurin tallied three of MSU's four interceptions to set an MSU bowl record.

Louisville led 21-17 at halftime and 24-17 through three quarters, but State rallied to outscore the Cardinals, 14-3, in the final quarter on the strength of two of Thompson's three rushing touchdowns, as well as two of McLaurin's three interceptions.

#18 MISSISSIPPI STATE 22
IOWA 27

January 1, 2019 • Raymond James Stadium • Tampa, Fla.

A late fourth-quarter comeback attempt fell just short for No. 18 Mississippi State on New Year's Day as the Bulldogs dropped a 27-22 decision to Iowa in the Outback Bowl. Nick Fitzgerald led the Bulldog offense into Iowa territory with seconds remaining in the contest, but a failed fourth-down attempt handed the victory to the Hawkeyes.

MSU got out to a 6-0 lead with a pair of first-quarter field goals by Jace Christmann, but the Hawkeyes cut State's lead in half with a 44-yard kick by Miguel Recinos. Iowa then scored a pair of touchdowns through the air, with Nate Stanley hitting Nick Easley and Ihmir Smith-Marsette, respectively, to give the Hawkeyes a 17-6 lead at the half.

The Bulldogs would come out of the locker room hot to score a pair of touchdowns within 18 seconds of one another. A Willie Gay Jr., interception return to the Iowa 6-yard line set up Kylin Hill's 1-yard push over the goal line on a swing pass from Fitzgerald. A few seconds later, Mark McLaurin recovered a fumble on the kickoff return at the Iowa 33. The next play, Fitzgerald scampered for his 101st career touchdown to give State a 19-17 lead.

Iowa would reclaim the lead at 24-19 on an 8-yard touchdown catch by Easley late in the third quarter. Christmann and Recinos exchanged field goals in the fourth, giving Iowa a 27-22 advantage with 5:51. State regained possession with 2:22 left, having to go 68 yards to score the go-ahead touchdown, but with no timeouts remaining. Fitzgerald led the MSU offense into Hawkeye territory, but the nine-play drive ended on an incomplete fourth-down pass with 25 seconds left, turning the ball over on downs. Iowa took a knee to secure the victory.

In his final game as a Bulldog, Fitzgerald totaled 255 yards of total offense, passing for 152 while gaining 103 on the ground for his 21st 100-yard rushing performance. Also playing in his final game at MSU, Jeffery Simmons highlighted the defense, notching 1.0 sack and 2.5 tackles for loss to pace the Maroon and White.

MISSISSIPPI STATE 28
LOUISVILLE 38

December 30, 2019 • Nissan Stadium • Nashville, Tenn.

Mississippi State dropped a 38-28 decision to Louisville in the Music City Bowl. Tommy Stevens, in his final game as a Bulldog, led Mississippi State's offensive attack, registering 221 yards through the air and 71 on the ground. Stephen Guidry was the Bulldogs' leading receiver, notching 76 yards on a career-high six receptions as he accounted for one touchdown.

Willie Gay Jr. paced the Bulldog defense with a career-high 11 total tackles, all of which were solo. Marcus Murphy and Tim Washington followed with 10 and eight stops, respectively. Kobe Jones tallied two sacks, the most of his career, while Marquiss Spencer and Aaron Brule each recorded one. Brule's sack marked the first of his career.

Gay Jr. forced a fumble that was recovered by Washington, for the first fumble recovery of his career. Gay Jr. has recorded an interception, forced fumble or fumble recovery in seven of his last nine games.

With Washington's takeaway, State has collected at least one takeaway in 26 of their last 29 games and has compiled 51 over the stretch.

State raced out to a 14-0 lead at the 10:19 mark in the second quarter after a pair of rushing touchdowns by seniors Stevens and Nick Gibson.

Louisville found the endzone four times and added a field goal for 31 unanswered points in the second, third and fourth quarters to gain a 31-14 advantage with 13:52 remaining in the contest.

Stevens led the Bulldogs on a 75-yard march to the end zone, highlighted by a 23-yard pass to Osirus Mitchell and two receptions by Farrod Green and Geor'quarius Spivey that resulted in 20 yards. The drive culminated with an 18-yard pass to Guidry to cut the Cardinals' lead to 31-21 at the 10:25 mark.

Louisville extended their lead to 17 as Javian Hawkins capped off a six-play drive with a 5-yard rush into the end zone. Hawkins also recorded a 24-yard rush during the drive.

Stevens scampered 22 yards before connecting on a 20-yard pass to Guidry and 16-yard pass to Green to land at Louisville's 35-yard line. Three plays later, Stevens found Mitchell from 24 yards out to bring the Bulldogs to a final margin of 38-28.

#22 TULSA 26
MISSISSIPPI STATE 28

December 31, 2020 • Amon G. Carter Stadium • Fort Worth, Texas

Mississippi State brought 2020 to a close with a victory as the Bulldogs edged No. 24 Tulsa 28-26 in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl at Amon G. Carter Stadium.

The game started in exciting fashion as MSU's freshman Lideatrick Griffin returned the opening kickoff 53 yards to the Tulsa 39-yard line. Just three plays later, Jo'quavious Marks darted into the end zone for a 28-yard rushing touchdown, and State led 7-0 just 1:19 into the contest.

The remainder of the first half took a turn very much to the defensive side of the ball, as the Golden Hurricane managed only a pair of fields goals. The Bulldogs led 7-6 at the intermission.

In the second half, both teams' offenses seemed to get back on track. After forcing a three-and-out on Tulsa's first drive of the third quarter, State marched 64 yards on nine plays for a touchdown. Quarterback Will Rogers capped the drive with a 13-yard scoring rush. Tulsa answered with a 7-play, 75-yard drive, Derenic Prince scampering in from 14 yards out to cut the State lead back to one at 14-13.

Tulsa would force a turnover on downs on MSU's next drive, but the Bulldogs would return the favor on the ensuing drive when Emmanuel Forbes picked off TU quarterback Zach Smith and returned it 90 yards for a touchdown. State led 21-13 with 3:29 remaining in the third period.

After an MSU punt attempt went awry and left the Golden Hurricane with excellent field position, Tulsa drove 32 yards for a score. However, the ensuing two-point try failed, leaving the Bulldogs in the lead at 21-19 with 12:30 to go in regulation.

State then answered with a solid 11-play, 65-yard jaunt to take a 28-19 advantage. Rogers found Griffin on a 13-yard touchdown strike to cap the 4:29 march. The play ended a huge day for Griffin who amassed 155 all-purpose yards, including two kick returns of 40-plus yards.

The Bulldogs would then get what would be seemingly be the game clincher late in the fourth. With Tulsa driving inside the MSU 10-yard line, State's Tyrus Wheat intercepted Smith.Though the play didn't totally end the game, it did two big things at the time - halted a potential TU touchdown and gave State possession with the opportunity to run more time off the clock.

The Golden Hurricane was able to stop State quickly on the ensuing drive and score a touchdown to cut the margin to two at 28-26 with 1:23 on the clock. Tulsa's onside kick attempt was recovered by the Bulldogs and, as TU had no timeouts remaining, MSU was able to run the clock out for the victory.

TEXAS TECH 34
MISSISSIPPI STATE 7

December 29, 2021 • Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium • Memphis, Tenn.

Playing in a postseason game for the 12th straight season, Mississippi State saw its 2021 campaign conclude with a 34-7 loss to Texas Tech in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl on Tuesday.

The Bulldogs finished the year with an overall record of 7-6, including three wins over opponents ranked in the final College Football Playoff Top 25.

MSU was unable to add to its solid season Tuesday. The Red Raiders put together a scoring drive on the game's opening series and the Bulldogs played from behind the rest of the evening.

Texas Tech built itself a 10-0 lead through one quarter before State answered. Early in the second quarter, the Bulldogs constructed a 10-play, 75-yard drive that was capped off by a 17-yard touchdown pass from Will Rogers to Rara Thomas. That cut the State deficit to 10-7, but it ended up being MSU's lone score of the day.

The Red Raiders added a field goal later in the period to take a 13-7 lead into halftime, then added on after the intermission.

In the third quarter, Texas Tech found the end zone twice to increase its advantage to 27-7. A fourth quarter Red Raider touchdown capped the scoring.

Rogers led the Mississippi State offense with 282 passing yards with a touchdown. Along the way, he became MSU's new single-season record holder for total offense, eclipsing Dak Prescott's previous high. Rogers was selected as MSU's Outstanding Offensive Player of the Game.

Makai Polk also made history on Tuesday. He hit the 100-catch mark for the season, becoming only the fifth player in Southeastern Conference history to do so.

On the defensive side, Fred Peters was chosen as State's Outstanding Defensive Player of the Game. The safety finished the Liberty Bowl with a team-high 12 tackles, including a quarterback hurry and a pass breakup.

WELCOME TO #STARKVEGAS

"You can't duplicate it. That is the only stadium I have broadcast a game in where I actually had to use an earplug in my non-earpiece ear to be able to focus, hear our broadcast and actually do my job. The only one."
– Tom Luginbill, ESPN (9.25.18)

"Mississippi State has become the loudest stadium in America. They get those cowbells ringing about three hours before kickoff out in the parking lots. You go through a game there, you come out of there and you can't hear for about a day and a half. It is unbelievable."
– Pat Forde, Yahoo Sports on Dan Patrick Show (8.22.17)

"Mississippi State was truly incredible. If I was to rank the SEC Nation shows and experiences this year, Mississippi State is No. 1. You cannot find a square inch of open grass (in the Junction). The loudest fans we have heard so far in college football this year."
– Joe Tessitore, SEC Network (10.23.14)

"When there is a big game at Davis Wade, I'd put that atmosphere up against anything in college football. You gotta see it to believe it."
–John Hayes, The Athletic (9.19.17)

"Want to know what a revolution sounds like? Between the third and fourth quarter, Journey's 'Don't Stop Believin'' blares through the stadium speakers. The throng rings cowbells to the beat, creating a deafening roar as they try to hold on to the feeling."
– Pete Thamel, Sports Illustrated (10.10.14)

"The weekend in Starkville was one of the most electric and extraordinary I've ever experienced covering the Southeastern Conference. I have never seen anything quite like this in my 35 years of covering college football. We could spend the rest of our lives trying to top that show."
– Paul Finebaum, SEC Network

DAVIS WADE STADIUM AT SCOTT FIELD

"The loudest game I have ever attended – start to finish – even postgame. You haven't lived until you've heard 'Don't Stop Believing' with accompaniment from 50,000 cowbells."
– Stewart Mandel, Fox Sports (10.11.14)

"Furthermore, Scott Field had become a virtual noise factory, louder than ever and that is really loud. You could not hear the guy next to you even when he was yelling."
– Rick Cleveland, Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame writer (11.11.17)

"Poor you. You spent Saturday somewhere other than Mississippi. I'm sorry. You didn't get goose bumps from a late-morning Starkville din so loud it seemed set to jar loose the Mississippi-Alabama borderline and hurl it nearer Tuscaloosa."
– Chuck Culpepper, Washington Post (10.5.14)

"These are the most genuine, authentic fans in America."
– Paul Finebaum, SEC Network on SEC Nation (11.14.15)

"The environment Saturday at Davis Wade Stadium was as electric as any college sporting event you're ever going to find. It was the loudest stadium I've ever been in, and it wasn't just the cowbells. It was an awesome environment all the way around and great people."
– Chris Low, ESPN.com (10.11.14)

"To all those Bulldog fans shining those cell phone flashlights and signing along to 'Don't Stop Believin'', they make Davis Wade Stadium the most fun place to watch a football game in the SEC."
– Kevin Scarbinsky, AL.com (11.14.15)

"Alabama at Mississippi State last year was the loudest stadium I've ever been in."
– Greg McElroy, ESPN (Summer 2018)

"Anyone with noise sensitivity needs to beware before entering Davis Wade Stadium. Pack earplugs and noise-canceling headphones for small children. Because it's going to be loud."
– Alex Scarborough, ESPN (Summer 2019)

DAVIS WADE STADIUM AT SCOTT FIELD

Capacity: 60,311

Davis Wade Stadium, the home of the Mississippi State football team, stands as one of the loudest and most unique venues in all of college football.

The first game at what was previously known as Scott Field came with an MSU win over Marion (Ala.) Military Institute, 54-0, on Oct. 3, 1914. More than a century later, Scott Field remains, now surrounded by a top-tier facility that frequently draws jam-packed, raucous crowds. All of the top 20 crowds in stadium history have come since 2014.

Originally christened after Olympic track and field athlete Don Magruder Scott, one of State's first football stars, the 107-year-old facility – which makes it the nation's second-oldest FBS on-campus football stadium – has undergone multiple renovation and expansion projects during its history to maintain its status as a destination venue.

More than $110 million in football projects have been initiated in the last decade. Of that figure, $75 million of it went towards the nationally-praised 2014 expansion.

More recent additions have featured the creation of an innovative, unique premium seating area in the upper deck of the stadium's west side. Known as The Balconies at Davis Wade Stadium, occupants have the chance to customize and enjoy a tailgate-style scene inside the venue. The stadium's videoboards and ribbon boards were all replaced and updated prior to the 2022 season, giving fans as immersive of an experience as possible.

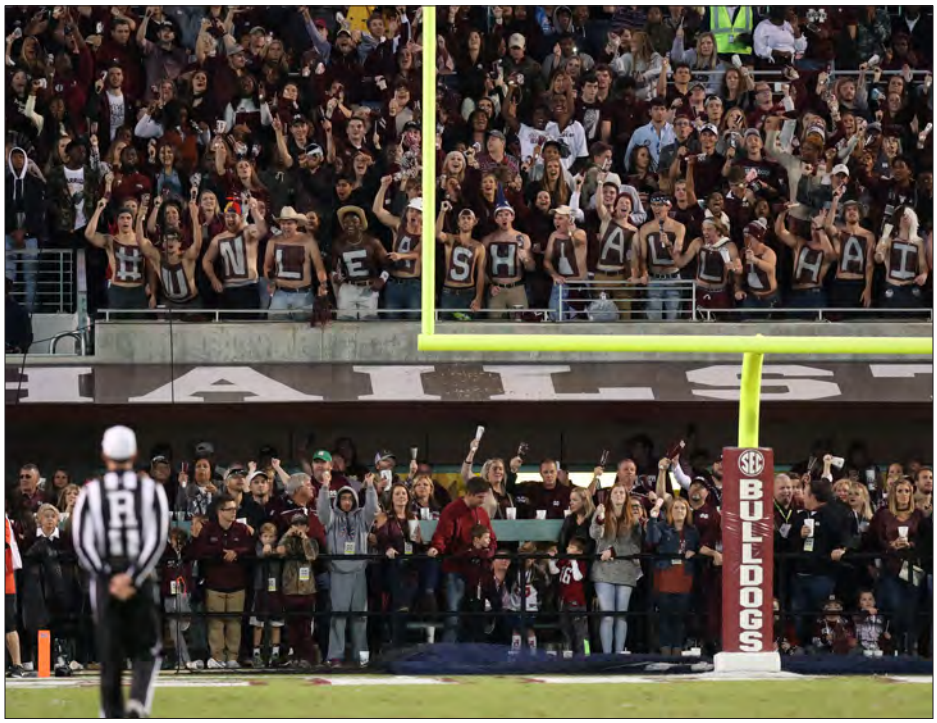
A state-of-the-art locker room in the north end zone of Davis Wade Stadium was completed in August 2018. The locker room, which housed the Bulldogs for the first time during the 2018 season, features 11,100 square-feet of space and includes custom-built lockers, separate coach and staff locker rooms, an expansive athletic training room and an equipment room. The players' locker room features a high-gloss metal panel ceiling, color-changing LED linear lighting, internally lit ceiling logos and a state-of-the-art sound system. In addition, a new recruiting lounge spanning more than 3,000 square feet is adjacent to the locker room. The previous home locker room in the south end zone now serves as the visiting team locker room.

The $3.6 million project was privately funded through the Bulldog Club. LPK Architects was the project's architect. ICM was the construction manager, and Copeland and Johns served as the general contractor.

Completed in August 2014, the north end zone expansion increased capacity, provided additional premium seating, elevators, restrooms and concessions and delivered a new west side concourse. Construction began in August 2012. The north end zone addition created a total of 8,815 new seats, which, factored with the loss of the previously existing bleacher seating in the north end zone, resulted in a net 6,255-seat increase. Included in that expansion were 7,076 grandstand seats, 1,155 Scoreboard Club seats, 236 loge seats, 22 traditional suites totaling approximately 288 seats and 60 field-level suite seats. Additionally, standing room availability and ADA-compliant seating were included in the project.

Also included in the north end zone is a non-seated, field level premium area, The Gridiron Club, which provides club-like amenities to any season ticket holder who buys a membership regardless of that person's stadium seat location. The new area has become a fan favorite as the Bulldogs sing the alma mater and take a victory lap in front of The Gridiron Club. The north end also features a high-definition video board similar in size to the one on the stadium's south end, which is among the largest in college football.

The west side renovation showcased a rebuilt concourse under the west stands, the addition of four high-capacity elevators, an increase in restroom and concession point of sale facilities and a brick facade that matches the new construction on the north side.



The new North End Zone and Gridiron Club were part of a $75 million Davis Wade Stadium expansion completed in 2014 that increased capacity by over 6,000.

In 2014, fans saw the number of elevators at Davis Wade Stadium more than double (from five to 12), the restroom fixture total nearly double (from 313 to 621) and permanent concession point of sale positions increase by over 40 percent (from 110 to 156). For media, the project included a new television compound away from the stadium property. The TV compound is now located west of the stadium, allowing network broadcast trucks to connect to stadium equipment via underground cable runs.

The renovation and expansion was funded by the sale of $68 million in bonds and $7 million in private giving. Private contributions for the stadium project were part of the Bulldog Club's "Today. Tomorrow. Forever" Athletics Facilities Initiative, which is completely independent of annual giving and priority seating donations. Construction and renovation design for the Davis Wade Stadium expansion and renovation was handled by local architect LPK of Meridian, Mississippi, along with national sports consultants 360 Architecture of Kansas City. The design team engineered the north end zone facility to support future expansion of approximately 5,000 seats, including 22 additional suites and an upper deck.

National media have proclaimed the new north end zone expansion makes Davis Wade Stadium arguably the noisiest from start to finish in college football. A sea of maroon and white in The Junction turned out for the first-ever SEC Nation broadcast in Starkville on the SEC Network prior to State's thumping of Texas A&M on Oct. 4, 2014. One week later, ESPN College GameDay made its first appearance in Starkville as No. 3 MSU battled No. 2 Auburn in a matchup of the highest ranked teams in the stadium's history. ESPN personality Lee Corso donned a Bulldog mascot head to a roar from the crowd. Hours later, MSU topped Auburn, 38-23, before a record crowd of 62,945 in the loudest game in school history. The victory ascended the program to its first No. 1 national ranking.

Prior to 2014, the previous expansion came in the summer of 2000 and raised capacity to 55,082 with the addition of 50 skyboxes and 1,700 club-level seats. The expansion continued into the 2001 season with the addition of 7,000 upper-deck seats. The entire project, completed at a cost in excess of $30 million, was made possible, in large part, by a financial commitment from the late Floyd Davis Wade Sr., of Meridian, Mississippi, for whom the stadium itself is now named.

Earlier building efforts in 1936 and 1948 brought capacity at Scott Field to 35,000 seats and provided the basic concrete grandstand structure (35 years after the 1948 expansion, the end zone seating structures were removed, lowering the capacity to 32,000 in 1983). But after 25 years, Scott Field was ready for another facelift and an expanded seating potential for the school's growing following.

A $7.2 million drive in 1986, spearheaded by former MSU athletic director Carl Maddox and an active group of university and community leaders, financed the addition of 9,000 seats to Scott Field's capacity without the use of appropriated state funding. A 5,500-seat upper deck, an additional 1,700 chair back seats that extend from the stadium's original structure, and another 1,000 chair back seats flanking the Bob Hartley Press Box on the second level were added to the west side. Two 1,700-seat sections were added to the east side stands to bring capacity to 40,656.

Earning a reputation of being one of the nation's toughest places to play, the facility has been host to average attendances in excess of 55,000 the last six seasons. In fact, the last 10 years have seen the largest cumulative totals in the stadium's history.

In 2011, the program watched as each game recorded a then top-15 all-time attendance mark at Davis Wade Stadium, including 57,871 against Alabama (second) and 56,924 vs. LSU (then fourth). The 335,695 total fans to watch a game in Starkville was then the highest ever for a six-game schedule at the venue.

State fans broke the school record for total attendance again in 2013 with 389,868 total fans, including a seven-game record average of 55,695. On Nov. 16, 2013, 57,211 people wrapped in Maroon and White attended the Alabama game, the fourth-largest crowd in school history.

During the memorable 2014 campaign, the first in the new expansion, MSU set attendance records for single-season total attendance (427,892), single-game average attendance (61,127) and single-game attendance (62,945). The 2014 Bulldogs also tied the school record for home wins as their 7-0 mark matched the 1999 team. The seven home victories also helped State to the first 10-win regular season in program history.

MSU broke total attendance (432,490) and single-game average attendance (61,784) for the third straight year in 2015. That year, the Bulldogs eclipsed 50,000 in season ticket sales for the first time in program history. The previous high for season ticket sales was 45,575 in 2014, and prior to that was 43,894 in 2013.

Scott Field's playing surface, which hosted 16-straight home victories from 1998 to 2000, is lush Hybrid Bermuda Grass (Certified Tifway 419), complete with an underground drainage and irrigation system. The field is encircled by a holly-lined sideline fence and end zone landscaping.

Entering the 2022 season, a total of 11,246,079 Bulldog fans have entered the turnstiles at Davis Wade Stadium since 1970.

On Oct. 11, 2014, No. 3 MSU hosted No. 2 Auburn and set a Davis Wade Stadium attendance record of 62,945 as the Bulldogs downed the Tigers, 38-23, with ESPN's College GameDay on hand for the first time.

SCOTT FIELD TIMELINE

1914 – Mississippi A&M's football field moves to its current stadium location and is called the "New Athletic Field."

1920 – Student body adopts a resolution to name the field Scott Field in honor of Don Scott, famed Olympic runner and Bulldog football standout from 1915-16.

1928 – Permanent seating for 3,000 fans is built on the west side of Scott Field at a cost of $15,000. In addition, portable stands are placed on the east side of the field with a similar capacity.

1936 – Construction begins on concrete stands on the west side with Works Progress Administration labor. The new concrete facility sits 8,000, while bleachers on the east side and in the end zone brings capacity to 20,000.

1948 – Scott Field is enlarged to 35,000 by increasing the west side concrete stands to 15,000 and the construction of 12,000 concrete seats on the east side of the stadium.

1983 – End zone seating structures are removed, reducing capacity to 32,000.

1986 – A $7.2 million expansion occurs, adding 9,000 seats to Scott Field's west side, including a 5,500-seat upper deck, 1,700 chairback seats extending from the stadium's original structure, and another 1,000 chairbacks flanking the press box. Two 1,700-seat sections are also added to the west side stands, bringing total capacity to 40,656.

1999 – Plans are announced for the largest expansion project in stadium history. A $30-million effort, backed largely by longtime MSU supporter Davis Wade, adds 10,500 seats and 50 luxury skyboxes, bringing total capacity to approximately 55,000 by the 2002 season. The new stadium, when completed, is renamed Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field.

2005 – Permanent end zone seating replaces temporary bleacher seating at the north end of the stadium, bringing official capacity to 55,082.

2012 – Construction begins on a $75-million expansion of the north end zone and the renovation of the west side concourse, bringing official capacity to 61,337 by the start of the 2014 season.

2014 – In a 49-0 win over Southern Miss on Saturday, Aug. 30, MSU celebrates 100 years of Scott Field and officially opens the new north end zone expansion before a record crowd of 61,889. The record would later be broken that season when 62,945 fans packed the stadium for MSU's victory over No. 2 Auburn.

2018 – A new, state-of-the art locker room in the north end zone expansion is completed before the start of the season.

2022 – The Balconies at Davis Wade are constructed prior to the start of the season, bringing official capacity to 60,311.

AGE BEFORE BEAUTY

In 2014, MSU celebrated 100 years of Scott Field in conjunction with the expansion and renovation of Davis Wade Stadium, which was originally built in 1914. Scott Field is the second-oldest on-campus stadium in FBS behind Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd Stadium.

OLDEST STADIUMS IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL

	Stadium	School	Built	Location
1.	Franklin Field	Penn	1895	Pennsylvania, Penn.
2.	Harvard Stadium	Harvard	1903	Boston, Mass.
3.	Bobby Dodd	Georgia Tech	1913	Atlanta, Ga.
4.	Yale Bowl	Yale	1913	New Haven, Conn.
5.	Davis Wade	Mississippi State	1914	Starkville, Miss.

While it may be one of the oldest in college football, it is in no way outdated. The $75-million renovation and expansion that was completed in 2014 makes it the only stadium among the top five oldest in FBS to be expanded since 2005.
